STRONG FOR SOUND MONEY

The Kentucky Democracy Calls a Halt on Free Silver.

NO EVASION OF THE CURRENCY ISSUE

The Advocates of Free Coinage Are Barely Accorded a Respectful Hearing—Gen. Hardin for Governor.

Governor—P. WAT. HARDIN of Mercer County.
Lieutenant Governor—R. P. TYLER of Fulton County.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 26.—The most pronounced check to the free-silver-coinage movement since its inception was to-day administered by the Kentucky Democratic State Convention. A month ago the man who would have predicted that the Democracy of Kentucky would take a pronounced stand against free silver coinage would have been ridiculed. The silver agitators, in claiming the support of the Solid South for their peculiar financial ideas, have never questioned the attitude of the Blue Grass State. Indeed, they had been looking forward to the early Kentucky convention with pleased expectancy, confident that it would "sound a bugle note," which should rally the entire South under the 16 to 1 standard.

Possibly never before were political propagandists subjected to more bitter disappointment. The convention to-day, instead of declaring its sympathy for the silver movement, took the utmost pains at every opportunity to express for it its emphatic disapproval.

P. Wat. Hardin,
Democratic Nominee for Governor of Kentucky.

The result of the Kentucky convention has demonstrated what friends of honest money have all along asserted—that the friends of free silver in the Democratic Party, while noisy, aggressive, and conspicuous, are in a hopeless minority, as compared with their less demonstrative but more thoughtful opponents. The issue has been fairly and clearly made in this State. The currency has been the dividing line between the factions. Senator Blackburn has led the silver men; Secretary Carlisle, Senator Lindsay, ex-Gov. Buckner, and Congressman McCreary have made the campaign as representatives of the sound-money views of President Cleveland and his Administration. There has been an open, free, fair fight. At no time has there been any talk of compromise. The result is that the free-silver movement within the Democratic ranks in Kentucky is dead. The square stand taken by Kentucky is almost certain to be taken as a basis for the action of the party in other Southern States.

The declaration of party policy, adopted to-day, aside from its references to State issues, was as follows:

The Democracy of Kentucky, in convention assembled, congratulates the country upon the repeal of the McKinley tariff law, and upon the evidences we have on every hand of returning prosperity, under the operations of reduced and equalized tariff taxation, and we denounce as fraught with danger and disaster the threat of our Republican adversaries to re-establish a protective tariff and to reinaugurate a policy of unequal taxation, which, in connection with general misgovernment by the Republican Party, culminated in the business panic of 1893.

The Democratic Party, which has always stood for the separation of Church and State for the sake alike of civil and religious freedom, does not hesitate to condemn all efforts to create distinction among citizens because of differences in faith as repugnant to an enlightened age and abhorrent to the instincts of American freemen.

We affirm without qualification the principles and policies declared by the National Democratic platform of 1892, and declare that our present National Democratic Administration is entitled to the thanks of the party for its honest, courageous, and statesmanlike management of public affairs, and we express our unfinished confidence in the Democracy and patriotism of President Grover Cleveland and his distinguished co-adviser and Secretary, John G. Carlisle of Kentucky.

This declaration is far more significant than its phraseology indicates, for its alternative was a condemnation of the Administration and a flatfooted pronouncement in favor of the unrestricted coinage by the United States of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, regardless of the course pursued by other countries. The silver men recognize the full significance of their defeat, and are not consoled by the fact that their candidate for Governor, Gov. Hardin, was successful. He must abandon his attitude on the currency question or retire from the ticket.

The convention remained in session till 2 o'clock this morning. No business was transacted, the confusion being so great that the chair could recognize no one. Business was resumed at 9:30 this morning, and the fight for the Governorship for a time overshadowed everything. Seven delegates from Louisville were in dispute. The majority of the Committee on Credentials favored seating the Hardin men, but the convention, by a close vote, seated the Clay delegates.

This disposed of the battle on the currency question began in earnest. Senator Lindsay, for the majority of the Committee on Resolutions, reported the declarations heretofore quoted. When the names of President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle were read they were greeted with long-continued applause.

A minority report written in a sarcastic vein sought to condemn the Administration, while a second minority report endeavored to strike out the indorsement of the President and the Secretary of the Treasury.

Congressman McCreary, who signed the majority report, insisted that it should be adopted by the convention. He said:

The national Administration is entitled to the respect of the Democrats of Kentucky, and we have therefore indorsed it. We can go forth to-day and say we are not ashamed of Grover Cleveland. There is but one way we can win this fight—to stand up for the Democratic platform of 1892, on which the party won its last great fight, and to indorse the present Administration. Let it not be said that there are two Democratic parties in Kentucky, and that we had a chance to win a great victory and did not do it. There is but one flag under which Jefferson showed us the way. The future has in store for the Democrats of Kentucky the same victory, the same triumph, if they will only stand together. As a Democrat I am in favor of the largest use of silver, so long as it is consistent with the financial prosperity of the country, and so long as the parity can be maintained. I am in favor of an international agreement for the rehabilitation of silver. France and Germany have both taken action, and are in favor of an international policy, and I believe it will not be long before such a one will be adopted. Whenever a country has undertaken alone to have the free and unlimited coinage of silver, it has come to a silver basis, and we don't want a silver basis, like Mexico, for instance. Let us be satisfied with the time-honored doctrines of the Democratic Party of local self-government, tariff reform, and sound money.

Senator Joseph Blackburn, the leader of the silver forces in Kentucky, spoke against the majority report. Senator Lindsay spoke for the majority report. He said:

We are not alone outlining a plan for Kentucky, but we are setting an example which the country will follow. We are here as the vanguard of the campaign which is just beginning. We are not here to indorse a plank in the Republican platform, but neither are we here to indorse a plank advocated by a gentleman who has been championing the cause of the unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1. We believe in the Democracy and statesmanship of Grover Cleveland, and that is why we indorse him.

He moved, in conclusion, the adoption of the majority report, and called for the previous question, and it was adopted—541 to 233.

Senator Lindsay, ex-Gov. Buckner, and James B. McCreary, who sat on the platform at the time the vote was announced, were warmly congratulated on the result. "It does not make any difference who wins for Governor now," said Senator Lindsay. "Honest money has been indorsed, and that is what we were after in the main."

After the adoption of the platform, adjournment was taken until evening. The first business of the evening was the nomination of a candidate for Governor. Cassius M. Clay, Jr., and P. Wat Hardin were the candidates, Hardin being nominated on the first ballot. He received 466 votes, against 338 for Clay, 3 for Henry Watterson, 3 for S. B. Buckner, and 63 for W. J. Stone.

R. P. Tyler of Fulton County was nominated for Lieutenant Governor and the convention adjourned until to-morrow.

TO DECLARE FOR SOUND MONEY.

Meeting of the State Democracy at Cooper Institute To-night.

There is every indication that the meeting of the State Democracy at Cooper Union to-night will be a successful and enthusiastic affair.

Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles S. Fairchild will preside, and make a short speech, and speeches will also be made by John De Witt Warner and James P. Archibald. All the speeches will be in advocacy of honest money, and sound currency, and resolutions will be adopted sustaining and indorsing the President in his efforts in that behalf. Mr. Fairchild said yesterday:

"It seems to me very important at this juncture that the Democracy of New-York should express themselves plainly and emphatically upon the side of honest money and sound currency. The State Democracy, composed of lifelong Democrats who have all been loyal to the principles and traditions of the party, naturally takes the lead in such a matter. We expect a large and enthusiastic meeting, and we shall adopt resolutions that will make our position plain and certain. The State of New-York, the greatest trading and manufacturing State in the Union, wants a dollar that has the greatest purchasing power possible. A dollar which is worth fifty cents or less is undesirable."

MONEY IS A MEASURE OF VALUE

What Charles F. Thwing Says Would Follow Free Coinage of Silver.

The Chamber of Commerce has just received a short, crisp and scientious letter from President Charles F. Thwing of the Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, regarding sound money. President Thwing wrote only a few sentences, but what he has to say covers a great deal of ground:

"It seems to me that the whole complex question would be greatly simplified by our bearing in mind the definition of money. Money is not a value primarily, but a standard, a measure, of value; money is not a value primarily, but a means of exchange.

"The free coinage of silver could not but instantly and seriously affect money as a means of exchange. This effect would be as serious as making either eighteen or seventy-two inches constitute a yard."

SHOOTING AFFAIR IN OKLAHOMA

R. W. Patterson, Register of the Land Office, Killed—A City Marshal Shares His Fate.

SOUTH ENID, Oklahoma, June 26.—City Marshal Williams and R. W. Patterson, Register of the United States Land Office, were killed in a shooting affair here this evening.

The trouble originally was between J. L. Isenburg, editor of The Enid Wave, and Patterson over an article in The Wave reflecting on Patterson. City Marshal Williams attempted to stop a fight between the men and was shot through the lung by Patterson.

He returned Patterson's fire, and his bullet struck Patterson in the forehead. Both men died within five minutes.

YACHT RUN DOWN BY UNKNOWN STEAMER

The Guests on the Psyche of Philadelphia Have a Narrow Escape.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—The sloop yacht Psyche of the Philadelphia Yacht Club, was run down in the Delaware River, off Gordon Heights, near Wilmington, Del., last night by an unknown steamship, and several men had narrow escapes from drowning.

Those on the yacht were J. G. Ramsdell and Joseph J. Murphy, the joint owners; Chief Coiner of the Mint William Morgan, George F. Munce, the attorney, and his brother, and J. G. Merino and one other man, who were guests. The crew consisted of two sailors and the steward. The owners of the yacht accuse the pilot of the steamship of carelessness.

Messrs. Ramsdell and Morgan and the Munce brothers jumped overboard. After swimming around for a quarter of an hour, they were picked up by the yacht's yawl. The steamer did not stop when the sloop had been run down, but continued on her way. The yacht did not sink, but was badly damaged.

FIRE FOLLOWS A LAMP EXPLOSION

Twelve Engines Working on the Liberty Building—Damage, $11,500.

The explosion of a gasoline lamp in the offices of the Newburger Company, on the third floor of the Liberty Building, Liberty and West Streets, was the cause of a fire in the building yesterday morning at 8 o'clock.

A dozen engines responded to the two alarms, and one fireboat New-York threw two streams on the building.

Carrie Townsend, a young woman employed by the Columbia Telephone Company, fainted during the excitement, and was carried down from the third floor by a policeman.

Fireman Keene of Engine No. 13 fell from an awning to the sidewalk. He received a sprained ankle and a wound on the breast.

The damage to the building was $3,500, and to the stock of the occupants about $8,000.

The State Press Association.

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y., June 26.—The members of the State Press Association arrived here on the afternoon train. There are 340 in the party, including members of the association, their wives, and daughters. There was a preliminary business meeting to-night in the County Court House, where an address of welcome was delivered by State Treasurer A. B. Colvin. Secretary Bunnell handed in his report, and the usual committees were appointed. The programme includes a visit by the State officials Friday.

Cornell's Excellent Time.

LONDON, June 26.—The Cornell eight rowed over the full course this afternoon, starting at a forty-eight stroke, dropping to forty-four, and finishing at forty-six. They covered the distance in 7:02.

Sporting Life will say to-morrow that the time made by the Cornell crew over the full Henley course proves them to be rivals to be feared. All the members of the crew are in splendid condition and look as if there is little chance of their becoming stale.

Two Saloons Lose Their Licenses.

The Excise Board yesterday revoked the license of the saloon 34 Bayard Street, owned by Edward Lynch. This is the place where a sailor named Welsh was fatally stabbed early last Thursday morning.

The board also revoked the license of Henry Gutterdam of Ulber's Hotel, 40 West Twenty-eighth Street. The place was raided June 13, and a number of horse-race pool tickets seized.

AGAINST WILLIAM HENRY

Police Now Have the First Positive Evidence of His Guilt.

HAD NEW MONEY AFTER THE MURDER

Changed His Clothing Before He Surrendered—Lied About Money Spent for Dinner—Other Evidence.

After groping blindly in the dark for nearly two weeks, with nothing but circumstantial testimony to reward them for their efforts, the Brooklyn police yesterday unearthed some highly important evidence in the Henry murder mystery.

It is the only positive and direct evidence against the "bad son," William Henry, that has come to light since his arrest for the murder of his father, the old miser. If it is substantiated under oath it will outweigh, the police believe, all the circumstantial evidence that they have gathered. The police have found out:

First—That William Henry changed his clothing between the time he was driven from his father's house, and the time he gave himself up to the police.

Second—That within a few hours of the time of the finding of the body, William was in a number of well-known resorts in New-York, spending money lavishly from a large roll of brand new bills. Miser Henry kept nothing but brand new bills in his house. When his trunk was broken open, the day after the body was found, there was therein $3,800 in crisp new paper money. There was not an old bill in the trunk.

Third.—That the "bad son" has during the last few years been familiar with sporting men, like "Mike" Coburn, and with other characters of the "Tenderloin." Some of his acquaintances, it is said, have been well-known criminals.

Fourth—That he lied as to the amount of money he spent at the Hotel Martin, in this city, shortly previous to the finding of his father's body.

Miser Henry's body was found in the basement hallway of his house, 95 South Portland Avenue, at 3:30 P. M., Friday, June 14. William Henry walked into the Fourth Precinct Station House, De Kalb and Classon Avenues, Brooklyn, at 7:30 the next morning and surrendered to Capt. Kitzer. He said he had been driven from his father's house the preceding Saturday, and he declared then, and has since reiterated many times, that he did not again enter the house. He at first denied that he had even been in South Portland Avenue since his father drove him out, but subsequently he said he went to the house Tuesday or Wednesday, but could not get in with his latch key, as the front door was bolted from the inside.

When William surrendered to the police he wore a black diagonal cutaway coat. The police have found three men who saw William after he was driven from his father's house and before he gave himself up to Capt. Kitzer. All three of these men agree in saying they are positive that when they saw the "bad son," which was on different occasions by the different men, he wore a dark-blue serge sack coat.

One of the men is connected with the Hotel Martin, and was on duty when William Henry took dinner there shortly before the finding of the body. This man says he distinctly recollects William Henry, and remarked at the time the discrepancy between the man's general appearance and the size of his check. He dined alone. It was said last night at the Hotel Martin that the Brooklyn police had been there during the day and had obtained a copy of the check for William Henry's dinner. The check amounted to $9.50. When accounting to the police for the way he spent money after being driven from the house, William said he spent a little over $8 at the hotel. The cashier and the waiters at the Hotel Martin say they do not recollect what kind of money William had, whether new bills or old.

The Brooklyn police have learned from the manager for Smith & McNell, hotel keepers in Washington Street, that William Henry was there three nights between the time he was driven out of his father's house and the time he surrendered at the Fourth Precinct Station House. The manager said he had known William for a long time, and had seen him in the hotel frequently. He distinctly recollected the times William was in the hotel last week, after he was driven from home, and he told the police, it was learned last night, that there was one thing he particularly remembered, and that was that William showed a roll of new bills. Asked how much he should judge was in the roll, the manager said there would have been at least $25, if all the notes were one-dollar bills, but, as a matter of fact, there were five-dollar bills in the roll.

The police learned, further, that William Henry had gone for several nights last week into McKeever Brothers' saloon, in Vesey Street, and had there spent money freely.

The police also found that William had made a tour of some of the resorts of the "Tenderloin" district of this city. They found several traces of him on Sixth and Eighth Avenues, between Seventeenth and Forty-second Streets. He was in Burns's restaurant, in Eighth Avenue, and there, it is said, he ran across a notorious sneak thief. This fellow says he was with William Thursday night, a week ago, but the police have nothing but his word for it, and his word would not be taken in any court, under oath.

When Walter Henry and Patrolman Walsh of the Fourth Precinct went to Miser Henry's house last Friday, Walter first obtained entrance through an open window of the second story, overlooking the front porch. He let the officer in at the front door, and first took Walsh up stairs. Pointing to the open closet in the miser's bedroom, Walter said: "Somebody has been here and has stolen papers." Leading the way into William's bedroom, in the rear of the attic, Walter said: "There's something wrong here. Some of William's clothes are gone."

Besides the employe of the Hotel Martin already mentioned as having stated that when William Henry took dinner there he wore a navy-blue serge sack coat, there are two other men who have told the police they saw William wearing the navy-blue serge sack coat. One of these is a well-known merchant doing business in the neighborhood of South Portland Avenue.

It was learned yesterday that the Brooklyn police did not arrest Walter Henry, because he stood the ordeal of the following test, which the police regarded as crucial and satisfactory: Shortly after the body of the miser was found the police went to Walter's house, in Flatbush, in his absence. When he returned he asked the one in command: "What are you doing here?" He was told that the police, in order to satisfy themselves and the public, wanted to make a thorough search of his house. He consented, and the house was searched from top to bottom. Every letter was opened, not only those from William and the old miser, but even the letters that passed between Walter and his wife before they were married. The police were so well satisfied of Walter's innocence, after the search, that all thought of suspecting or arresting him was dropped.

Can Houses Be Libeled?

The Rev. A. C. Dixon and the Rev. J. F. Carson were interested spectators in the Adams Street Police Court, Brooklyn, when the cases of George F. Elliott and Eugene V. Brewster of the Law Enforcement Society were called yesterday. These men were charged with criminal libel for having publicly named certain houses that, they said, were disorderly.

Charles J. Patterson moved for their dismissal, as he claimed that a house could not be libeled and that the persons were not libeled, as their names had not been mentioned. Justice Walsh will give a decision on this point Friday morning.

POLICEMAN FIGHTS IN A CABLE CAR

Took Four of the Force to Arrest Him and a Companion, Both Drunk and Disorderly.

Policeman Edward J. Byrne of the West Sixty-eighth Street Station, accompanied by a friend named John Patrell, boarded a Broadway cable car going up town last night at 6:30 o'clock. Both men were under the influence of liquor, Byrne being grossly intoxicated.

At Fourteenth Street, Patrell began to annoy the passengers by expectorating in every direction. Several of the passengers remonstrated with him. The conductor told the men that if they did not behave themselves they would be put off the car.

"Is that so?" retorted Byrne, striking the conductor in the face. The two men announced that they were going to clear out the car.

The car was crowded. Women screamed and rushed for the door, which was blocked by the crowd. The gripman stopped the car, and went back to help the conductor. They were no match for the two drunken men, who stood back to back, striking at every one within reach.

One of the passengers notified Roundsman Finley of the fracas. The latter called Patrolmen Nealis and Newman of the Broadway squad, and Birmingham of the West Thirtieth Street Station.

After a hard fight they managed to get the two men, still fighting and yelling, into the street, where an immense crowd had gathered. The two drunken men turned their attention to the policemen and announced that they were going to thrash them. It was found necessary to handcuff both prisoners in order to get them to the station house.

At the corner of Twenty-eighth Street and Broadway, Byrne, who was in citizens' clothes, and was not at that time known to be a policeman, turned to Newman, to whom he was handcuffed, and said: "We may as well settle this right here. I won't go to the station house." With that, he jumped back with such force as to knock Policeman Newman flat on his back in the gutter. Byrne then tried to make his escape, but the other policemen came quickly to Newman's aid, and Byrne was subdued.

Both men then went along quietly until they got to the West Thirtieth Street Station, where Patrell began to fight and refused to go into the station house. Two or three policemen from the reserve platoon ran out and carried him into the station house.

When taken before Sergt. Flannery, Patrell refused to give his address or tell his occupation. Byrne said that he was twenty-eight years old, and lived at 688 Hudson Street. He would not tell his occupation. When he was searched his shield and revolver were found on him.

Capt. Pickett notified Acting Capt. Chapman of the West Sixty-eighth Street Station of the arrest of Byrne. Acting Capt. Chapman, with Police Surgeons Nesbitt and Cook, hurried down to the West Thirtieth Street Station. As soon as Byrne saw his commanding officer, he said he wanted to resign. He was informed that he would not be allowed to do so. The Surgeons examined the prisoner, and announced that he was under the influence of liquor. Both men will be taken to the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning.

STATE COMMITTEE NOT TO MEET

Chairman Hinckley to Appoint a Sub-Committee to Settle Claims—His Views on Silver.

J. W. Hinckley, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, was at the Murray Hill Hotel yesterday. In regard to the talked-of meeting of the State Committee he said that after consultation with several of the members he had decided not to call the committee together at present, but under the power given to him would appoint a sub-committee to investigate the claims to regularity of the two County Committees in Monroe County, and settle the claims of rival organizations in any other portions of the State.

Many of the members of the State Committee are now, or will be soon, enjoying their Summer vacations and Mr. Hinckley himself is about to try to get a little outing. He is going to spend a few days with Senator Hill at Normandie-by-the-Sea, and afterward spend a few days with Mr. Belmont on his yacht.

Speaking of the silver question, Mr. Hinckley said he did not see how anybody whose mind was at all logical, or whose reasoning powers were well developed, could regard the arguments of the silver people as anything but sophistry.

MR. ALTMAYER FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM

Gas Was Turned On, but Death Was Due to Heart Failure.

Aaron Altmayer, a wealthy real estate dealer, was found dead yesterday morning in his home at 455 West One Hundred and Fifty-second Street. His death was due to heart failure, caused by dropsy, and immediately brought on by trying to light the gas, which was turned on at the time he was found.

Deputy Coroner Huber said his death was caused by heart failure, and not by asphyxiation. His face was ruddy and not black when found.

After his wife's death he lived with his son until a month ago, when he returned to his own home. He was one of the oldest stockholders in the Chemical Bank.

Mr. Altmayer had several engagements for yesterday morning. His friends say he could have had no reason for committing suicide.

A son of Mr. Altmayer is a silk importer at 452 Broadway. He said his father was interested in Mount Sinai Hospital, Montefiore Home, Hebrew Orphan Asylum, and other charitable institutions.

DEATH OF THOMAS W. GREENE

Was One of the Best-Known Telegraphers in the Country.

Thomas W. Greene, one of the best-known telegraph operators in the employ of the Western Union Company, died yesterday in this city. He was thirty-six years old.

For the last ten years he had been with The Chicago Inter-Ocean in the New-York office. He helped to organize the Telegraph Operators' Union, and was one of the leaders in the strike of 1883. So generous were his efforts in behalf of the union and so numerous his articles in the various telegraph periodicals that there is scarcely an operator in the country who has not at least heard of "Tom" Greene, as he was familiarly known.

Mr. Greene's home was in Rutherford, N. J. He leaves a wife and a son.

Risked Her Fortune for a Husband.

DETROIT, Mich., June 26.—Putting her share of the ten-million-dollar estate of her father in jeopardy, Miss Flora Ann Whitney was married yesterday to Rudolph Alfred Demme of Berne, Switzerland. The bride is the second daughter of David Whitney, Jr., and is the wealthiest young woman of Detroit. The groom comes from one of the oldest and most aristocratic families of Switzerland. The match between Miss Whitney and Mr. Demme was opposed. Mr. Whitney had no objections to Mr. Demme personally, but he has a strong antipathy to foreigners.

Five Deaths Caused by Lightning.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 26.—A severe rain and thunder storm prevailed in Alabama this morning. Thomas and George Washington were killed by lightning at Falkland while standing under a tree. James Hackney was killed in his doorway at Lincoln. Lightning struck a dead tree at Smith's Mills. It fell on Mr. and Mrs. William Mettrom, who were passing in a buggy. Mettrom was killed, and the horse ran away and killed Mrs. Mettrom.

A Chicago Girl Secures a Title.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The marriage of Miss Rose Marston, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Henry C. Marston of this city, to Baron Rudolph Schutzber-Micheling was celebrated to-day at Grace Episcopal Church.

HELD FOR A BIG RANSOM

A Buffalo Lawyer Chained for Days in a Deserted House.

STRANGE STORY OF BRIGANDAGE

Two Men Capture a Prominent Citizen and Keep Him in Irons—A Wife's Shrewdness Results in a Rescue.

BUFFALO, June 26.—The police this morning found Octavius O. Cottle, a rich and well-known lawyer of this city, in the cellar of an abandoned cottage on Baynes Street, where he was being held a captive by men who wanted $2,500 from his wife as a ransom.

Cottle had been missing since Monday morning. On that morning a stranger drove up to Mr. Cottle's house and asked him to drive with him to a house on Chenango Street, which he was desirous of selling to certain of Mr. Cottle's clients. Mr. Cottle drove away with the stranger, who took him to the deserted house. It was in the centre of the residence district, but where the houses are not very close together. He asked Mr. Cottle to step in and appraise the house.

Mr. Cottle entered in advance of the stranger, and as the door closed on him, he was attacked by the stranger and another man who had been hiding in the hall. They gagged Cottle and dragged him to the cellar, where preparations had been made for his reception. Handcuffs were put on his arms and shackles on his legs, and a dog collar was fastened around his neck, the chain being carried to the shackles so that he could not straighten up. Then all the chains were fastened to the floor. The gag was taken out of Cottle's mouth, and his captors told him he would be released when they received $2,500.

Pens and paper were produced, and he was directed to write a letter to his wife telling her he was in serious trouble and for her to give the bearer $2,500 at once.

Mrs. Cottle was much surprised when she got the letter, and was about to give the money to the man when her son came in. She confided in him, and he notified the police. She told the stranger to come again later in the day, but he never came back.

The other man remained with Cottle until last night, and then, alarmed when his companion did not reappear, he went out, leaving some crackers and a pail of water for the prisoner.

A policeman passing the vacant house this morning heard groans issuing from the house, and, on making an investigation, discovered Mr. Cottle in the cellar nearly unconscious. The police have made no arrests. They are sure that the men went east by train this morning or late last night. There is no clue further than that.

PHILIP M'MANUS ARRESTED

The Dishonest Egg and Butter Dealer Caught in California.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 26.—Detectives J. K. Murphy and J. L. Krauch of New-York to-day arrested Philip McManus, who is wanted in that city to answer to the charge of defrauding creditors. He came here six months ago and gave the name of G. S. Bradford.

Two weeks ago W. A. Gade, a New-York commission merchant, and Detective Murphy arrived here on a search for McManus. Last night Detective Krauch arrived from New-York, bringing extradition papers for McManus. Before the detectives could get away with the prisoner on the afternoon train to-day, habeas corpus proceedings were begun.

It is claimed that McManus in September shipped nearly $40,000 worth of butter and eggs to Philadelphia and Boston, sold them, collected the proceeds, and disappeared.

VENEZUELA WILL HAVE AN EXHIBIT

In response to an invitation to the Republic of Venezuela to take part in the Cotton States and International Exposition, to be held at Atlanta, Gen. I. W. Avery, United States Commissioner to the exposition, has received an official communication from Jacinto Lara, saying that the Cabinet held a meeting and appointed four Commissioners and voted a sum of money for Venezuela's exhibit at the exposition.

ALBANY, June 26.—Alger M. Wheeler of Buffalo has been appointed Secretary of the commission appointed by Gov. Morton to see that this State is properly represented at the International Cotton Exposition to be held at Atlanta, Ga., next Fall. Gov. Morton made the appointment, which carries with it a salary of $125 a month. The commission will meet at the office of James E. Graybill, at 220 Broadway, in New-York City, on Saturday.

New-Jersey Medical Society Election.

CAPE MAY, N. J., June 26.—The Medical society of New-Jersey elected the following officers: President—William Elmer of Trenton; First Vice President—T. J. Smith of Bridgeton; Second Vice President—D. C. English of New-Brunswick; Third Vice President—C. R. Fisher of Bound Brook; Corresponding Secretary—E. L. B. Godfrey of Camden; Recording Secretary—William Peirson of Orange; Treasurer—Archibald Mercer of Newark; Standing Committee—H. W. Elmer of Bridgeton; Horace H. Wetherell of Camden, and Henry Mitchell of Asbury Park.

Disappeared and May Have Drowned.

NEWARK, N. J., June 26.—John T. McCastland, who for fifteen years has been Station Master of the Market Street station of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has been suffering from brain trouble for a week past. He left his home last night to go to a barber's. He gave his gold watch and $30 to the barber to keep for him until to-day. He was later seen on the Passaic River bridge, and it is feared that he may have been drowned.

Bancroft and Medusa Sail.

PORT JEFFERSON, L. I., June 26.—The United States practice cruiser Bancroft sailed from here at midnight last night. The Bancroft came here to receive the cutter yacht Medusa, presented to the naval cadets by the mother of the late Robert Center.

Lieut. Daniels and a crew composed of cadets and seamen were put on the cutter, which sailed for Newport yesterday afternoon.

MORA INDEMNITY AND THE CORTES

Consul General Ramon O. Williams's Return to His Post an Assurance of Strict Policy Toward Spain.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The news from Madrid that the session of the Cortes was virtually closed yesterday with the passing of the Spanish and Cuban budgets gave rise here to the question whether the Mora indemnity demanded of Spain by the United States had been included in the budgets.

Inquiry at the State Department was met with the statement that nothing had been heard from Minister Taylor since he acknowledged the receipt of instructions relating to the indemnity. It was taken for granted at the department, in view of his silence, that he has not yet had an opportunity to lay the demand of this Government before the Spanish Minister of State. This leads to the inference that there is no reference in either budget to the Mora claim.

Department officers said to-day that no information had been received here bearing on that point. Señor Dupuy de Lôme, the Spanish Minister, said to-night that he knew nothing of the provisions of the budgets. He assumed, however, that his Government had not taken any action regarding the Mora indemnity. Even if the Cortes shall adjourn without considering the matter in which the United States Government is so much interested there will not be any change in the policy of the Administration. The Spanish Minister of State will be pressed for payment of the indemnity, and, if his Government refuses to comply, the entire matter will be laid before Congress next December. With the history of this celebrated claim before it, showing that Republican and Democratic Secretaries of State have stood firmly for the payment of the indemnity promised by Spain, there is no reason to doubt that the Congress would authorize vigorous measures for the collection of the debt.

It was said at the State Department this afternoon that the United States Consul General to Cuba, Mr. Ramon O. Williams of Brooklyn, was probably on his way to his post. Mr. Williams came to this country nearly two months ago, on his yearly leave of absence. It was rumored at the time that the Spanish authorities in Cuba were not well disposed toward him, and would be greatly pleased if he should remain in the United States.

The opposition to Mr. Williams, it is said, was due to his close attention to the interests of this country. He was promoted to the post he now occupies years ago, when he held the unimportant position of Vice Consul. He is regarded at the State Department as one of the most capable members of the Consular Service. He is wealthy and independent, and on more than one occasion has let the fact become known to his superior that he would resign without delay if there was dissatisfaction with his course.

It is unusual for one in his position to combine independence with high administrative ability, and this combination may be assumed to be the reason why he has held the position so long. Although no one at the State Department is willing to discuss the matter, there is a well-defined belief here that Mr. Williams returns to Cuba before the expiration of his leave of absence because the Administration desires to have the benefit of his knowledge of Cuban affairs at this particular time, when trouble is likely to occur between the United States and Spain.

In view of the hostility in Cuba to Mr. Williams, the view is entertained here that his hurried return to Havana is equivalent to a notice by this Government that hereafter there is to be nothing lax in the relations between the two Governments, so far as Cuba is concerned. While the neutrality laws shall be observed, American interests in Cuba shall not be permitted to suffer. Naturally, the question of the Mora indemnity enters into the discussion of Mr. Williams's movements.

The one important fact in connection with his return is that Spain is not to be humored by this Government. Americans having large investments in Cuba will be glad to know that Mr. Williams will soon be at his old post.

Mr. Williams, who is at his home in Brooklyn on a sixty days' leave of absence, will sail for Havana Saturday.

WORK OF THE CYCLONE IN TEXAS

Two or Three Persons Killed, a Church Completely Ruined, and Another Blown from Its Foundation.

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 26.—Two or three persons were killed by the cyclone at Baird, Callao County, last night. Among them was Mitchell Mayes, a son of the Rev. J. Mayes, pastor of the Baptist Church.

The Baptist Church was demolished, falling on the parsonage and crushing it to pieces.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church was blown off its foundation and badly damaged.

The Methodist parsonage was lifted fifteen feet from its foundation and almost totally wrecked. Several dwellings were badly damaged.

At Clyde, five miles west of Baird, six or eight buildings were blown down.

HIGHWAYMEN IN PARK PLACE

Rob an Armenian Merchant and Throw Away the Wallet.

Two well-known thieves were arrested last night. They were Thomas Sullivan of 35 Monroe Street, and George Lennon of 14 Oak Street. George Lagore, an Armenian merchant, of 349 Palisade Avenue, Jersey City Heights, was seized about 10 o'clock at Park Place and Church Street by Lennon, who held him while Sullivan rifled his pockets.

Sullivan took a large wallet which was filled with Turkish money, equal in amount to $275. Lagore cried "Police!" Patrolman Hennessy blew his whistle and ran to the man's assistance. He was joined by Policeman Rohnig, and the highwaymen were arrested. On the way to the station house Sullivan threw the wallet into an area way. He also threw away a bottle of "knock-out drops."

On June 17 Sullivan, who at that time gave the name of "Thomas Murphy," was arrested with James Mullen by the Church Street police on a similar charge. They robbed a man at Murray and West Streets of a gold watch and chain and his money.

Col. Fellows Starts for Europe.

Col. John R. Fellows was a passenger on the Red Star steamship Friesland, which sailed yesterday for Antwerp. He expects to be absent two months. Beyond a visit to Holland he had not decided in what parts of Europe his vacation would be spent.

A number of his friends and attachés of the District Attorney's office were at the pier to see him start.

Justice G. C. Barrett, who was also a passenger on the Friesland, will visit the German watering places.

Negro Kills Negro in Brooklyn.

Frederick Bowman, twenty-two years old, of 945 Herkimer Street, and Andrew Johnson, twenty-four years old, of 16 Bancroft Place, Brooklyn, negroes, quarreled in front of Johnson's residence last night. Bowman struck Johnson on the head with a stone, causing his death. Bowman was arrested.

Presidential Appointments.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The President at Gray Gables has made the following appointments: Elias E. Dorsey of Denver, Col., to be Receiver of Public Moneys at Del Norte, Col.; Aaron L. Gamble to be a Third Lieutenant in the Revenue Cutter Service of the United States.

Inspector Edward Reilly May Die.

Police Inspector Edward Reilly of the Brooklyn Police Department is seriously ill at his home, 15 Third Place. His physician is doubtful of his recovery. Inspector Reilly is fifty-two years old, is a war veteran, and has been a policeman since June, 1867.

BOTH CREWS IN FINE FORM

CRIMSON NEVER SENT BETTER MEN

"Bob" Cook Has a Modified Stroke for the Blue Oarsmen—Freshmen Contest to be Rowed This Morning.

NEW-LONDON, Conn., June 26.—There are not more than a handful of people here to-night, even though the freshmen race between eights from Yale, Harvard, and Columbia is to be rowed at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. Most of the visitors are yachtsmen at that, Columbia being the most largely represented in the college contingent.

Yale will send over quite a crowd of graduates and undergraduates in the morning, as it is very handy for the boys, who can leave the Elm City at 8 o'clock and reach here in time for the race, which is to be rowed at about 10 o'clock. No special crowd from Harvard is expected, as the Cambridge men have little faith in the ability of their crew to win from the strong crew that Yale has put in the water. The freshman race is such a complete side issue that no observation train is to be run, and there will be but very little chance for the public to see the contest.

Guy Richards, who is to act as referee, arrived yesterday afternoon, and, in company with "Billy" Meikleham, spent the night at Columbia's quarters, where Walter Peet, coach for Columbia, joined them, after witnessing the work of the Harvard 'Varsity from the Harvard launch. Encouraged by the victory of their 'varsity crew at Poughkeepsie, the Gotham eight feels confident that it will give Yale a hard race to-morrow, and that they have, at least, a fair chance of winning.

The crews as they are to row are made up in this way:

COLUMBIA.

It is possible that Jennings may not row in the Harvard crew, as he may be required to take Hollister's place in the 'Varsity on Friday, the latter being so ill that he has not rowed in the each. The race will be rowed down stream as usual. The harbor is filled with yachts and the display of fleet pleasure vessels trimmed with colors promises to be even more gorgeous than it has been in past years.

THE COLLEGE YACHT RACE.

Boats that Will Fly Blue and Crimson Colors on the Sound.

NEW-LONDON, June 26.—There will be two regattas here to-morrow. The yachts of the Harvard and Yale Clubs will meet to settle the question of supremacy that arises each year, and other yachts will race in the regatta of the Pequot Association. This will be the best race. The entries are as follows: Schooners—J. Roger Maxwell's Emerald, H. C. Rouse's Iroquois, H. W. Lamb's Marguerite, J. Berre King's Elsemarie, and W. A. Gardner's Mayflower. Sloops, Class 1—George Works's Katrina, J. C. Bergen's Hildegard, Lippet Brothers' Wasp, and C. Vanderbilt, Jr.'s Ilderim. Sloops, Class 2—Ashumet, Memory, Infanta, and Drusella. Thirty-four Raters—Dragoon and Salmon.

The start will be made at 11 o'clock off the Pequot House, and the yachts will sail over triangular courses. The entries for the Yale-Harvard regatta are:

Yale—Nymph, H. W. Harris; Arrow, J. D. Sawyer; Toboggan, S. D. Babcock, Jr.; Narata, F. M. Hoyt; Alva, A. D. Cochrane; Hoodler, N. Emmons; Voesung, J. De Forrest.

Harvard—Betsy, R. G. Wadsworth; Tomboy, T. K. Lathrop, Jr.; Homer, C. Jackson; Parolos, John D. Parker; Hurricane, Phil Nichols.

The start is fixed for 11 o'clock. An effort is being made to-night to sail the yachts in one regatta. This would simplify matters very much, but the college boys are obstinate.

SEAWANHAKA-CORINTHIAN'S CRUISE

The Emerald Wins in the Schooner Class on the Run to New-London Light.

NEW-LONDON, June 26.—Commodore Benedict furnished an exciting finish to the second days' race of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club's race cruise. After passing Cornfield Light, the Oneida went back to find out where the tailenders were. She had been following the Wasp, being satisfied that none of the yachts were in need of assistance, except in the way of a little more wind. The Oneida went after the Wasp again. The crack forty-six-footer was at least six miles in the lead and to make matters worse the wind had freshened considerably, and she was bowling along at a great rate. The Oneida started to get to the finishing line first, and eventually she crossed the line a record ahead of her rival.

When the yachts got under way at Morris Cove, the outlook for a good day's race was not very bright. It looked foggy outside and heavy clouds threatened to make it unpleasant. By 9 o'clock the wind freshened from the east-southeast. The Oneida anchored off the Beakwater shortly before 10 o'clock and promptly on the hour the preparatory signal was given.

As on the first day, it was to be a one-gun start, and the racing yachts manoeuvred for position. All but the Gossoon were at the northerly end of the line, and when the starting gun was fired they came down for the line on the port tack. The Gossoon was on the starboard tack. The Wasp was the first to cross, and then came the Iroquois just under the light and to the windward of the whole fleet.

L. Vaughan Clark sent the Gossoon over next, crossing right under the Oneida's stern. M. Hoyt's Norota was next across, closely followed by the Katrina. The Gossoon on the starboard tack and the Katrina on the port tack were drawing dangerously to one another, George Work tried to weather the Gossoon, and Mr. Clark was forced to luff to save a collision. The Katrina then tacked, but not before the Gossoon lost considerably. The Hildegarde was the next boat, and then came the schooners Emerald and Alcaea, the latter being a little to windward of Mr. Maxwell's boat.

The Wasp, Iroquois, and Gossoon made a short tack in shore, and then all stood out on the Sound. The Wasp went about again, and followed by the Katrina, Gossoon, and Hildegard worked along the Connecticut shore. The schooners and the Norota made a long leg across the Sound on the port tack. The Emerald soon took the lead but the Iroquois stuck to her for a long time. At 11 o'clock the order was Emerald, Iroquois, Alcaea, and Norota standing off shore and Wasp, Katrina, and Gossoon keeping along the Connecticut shore.

At 12:10 o'clock the Emerald tacked, went to starboard, and was followed immediately by the Iroquois; both went about a few minutes later and kept on until well under the Long Island shore. The Emerald set her maintopmast staysail and then drew away from the Iroquois very fast. The yachts on the north shore got a good lift through the wind hauling more to the south, and about noon the Wasp bowled along in great shape and soon had a commanding lead on the Katrina. This change did not last long, however, and at 2 o'clock the Wasp had got around to the east and it was a dead beat.

The schooners and the Norota on the Long Island shore got a favorable slant through the wind hauling to the south a little later. Faulkner's Island Light was passed at 2 o'clock. The Wasp was then about half a mile ahead of the Katrina, with the Gossoon third. Cornfield Point Lightship was passed at 4 o'clock by the leaders. Soon afterward the wind freshened and they made good time to the finishing line, which was off the New-London Light.

The order at the finish was: Wasp, 5:02:35; Katrina, 5:10:50; Emerald, 5:41:55; Gossoon, 5:56:53; Iroquois, 5:59:00; Alcaea, 6:11:05; Norota, 6:12:43.

The following is the table:

SCHOONERS.

Yacht.	Elapsed Time.	Allow-ance.	Corrected Time.	Cumulative Corrected Time.

Norota	12 04	8 43	7 16 56	12 59 32

The Emerald wins the one-hundred-and-fifty-dollar prize offered by Commodore Benedict for schooners, and the Iroquois wins the second prize, $50, offered by Rear Commodore Cruger.

In the sloop classes, the Wasp wins the one-hundred-and-fifty-dollar prize offered by Rear Commodore Rouse, and the Katrina wins the fifty-dollar prize offered by Rear Commodore Cruger.

The squadron will race back to Oyster Bay on Saturday.

Valkyrie III. a Bit Tender.

HASTINGS A SURPRISE.

Captures the Surf Stakes from Handspring by Three Lengths.

As if in protest against the dissolution of the partnership between John Daly and Dave Gideon, two of the firm's representatives—Hastings and Keenan—captured the Surf Stakes and the Tidal Stakes at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. The one was as unexpected as the announcement of the day previous that the stable was to be dispersed, while Keenan's handy victory in the Tidal Stakes it was hoped would persuade the two popular turfmen to forswear their determination.

The dull, threatening weather interfered somewhat with the attendance, which, owing to the three day's inactivity in deference to the death of James G. K. Lawrence, had been expected to prove a bumper. As it was, a crowd of only passable dimensions put in an appearance.

The Surf Stakes, for two-year-olds, was apparently at the mercy of Handspring, who, although he shouldered 125 pounds, scared everything away except Gideon & Daly's Hastings and the Blemton Stable's Sagamore. After his brilliant victory in the Double Event, Handspring seemed to have the foot of every youngster in this section, and, as he had recently smothered little Declare in a trial, it was not surprising yesterday that bookmakers and punters, the whole fry of backers, in fact, fall head over heels to accept 2 to 7, and later 1 to 4, about Phil Dwyer's flier. Hastings's owners thought their colt's chances of winning hopeless, and advised their friends accordingly. Jim, however, was a strong order for the place, and several big bets were registered against his name at 1 to 4. Sagamore was disregarded altogether.

The result was a staggerer. Handspring tried his usual tactics of racing in front and killing his field in the first quarter. This time he reckoned without his host, for try as he would he could not shake Hastings off, and, entering the stretch, Handspring was bumping and staggering against Hastings like a drunken man. Inside the last furlong the Gideon & Daly colt shot out and won without the semblance of an effort by three lengths. Sagamore was beaten off.

Col. Ruppert started both Gotham and Counter Tenor for the Tidal, and, although he declared to win with the first named, Counter Tenor finally got the partisan with Keenan. Gotham faced himself into the ground before three-quarters of a mile had been compassed. Keenan and Connoisseur then took up the issue, and when they were fairly straightened, the Gideon & Daly colt drew out and won easily by two lengths. Connoisseur was second, a head before Dolabra, who came strong in the last furlong. Counter Tenor faded away under a choking pull and finished last.

The summaries:

WHO WILL RACE MURPHY?

Bald's Offer to Take Sanger's Place Regarded with Considerable Favor.

LOCAL CRACKS TO TRY FOR HONORS

The Kings County Wheelmen's Race Meet at Manhattan Beach Expected to be a Very Successful Event.

It is not likely that the Racing Board will permit Sanger to ride in a match race with Charlie Murphy at the meet of the Kings County Wheelmen on Saturday, although the meet managers announce that they hope to have the big fellow's suspension waived just for the occasion. If the men race on that day Murphy will have to turn professional and this is among the probabilities. Sanger has declared himself a "pro.," and he raced as such since Chairman Gideon suspended him early this week. This being the case, it would establish a dangerous precedent were the cracks allowed to carry out their part of the match as arranged some time ago.

Bald's proposition to take Sanger's place may yet be accepted, in which event Murphy will have an equally formidable opponent. It is said that Bald's offer is regarded with favor by the Kings County Race Committee.

This meet will unquestionably be the most interesting ever held by the Kings County Wheelmen, and the indications are that an enormous crowd will be present at the Manhattan Beach track. The racing will begin promptly at 2 o'clock, and the last event should be over by 6 o'clock, if not before.

The mile race for the metropolitan championship (for Class A riders) should be a star attraction, having as it does the entries of such cracks at Ertz, Bofinger, Cobb, Goodman, Barbeau, Owens, Brock, Hoppe, Rich, Granger, and White. The winner of this important event will receive the fifty-dollar gold medal presented by The New-York Times.

Among the class B entries are: C. M. Murphy, F. J. Titus, L. B. Cabanne, C. T. Earl, E. C. Bald, H. C. Tyler, L. S. Johnson, E. C. Johnson, L. S. Callahan, Earl Kiser, I. A. Silvie, W. J. Hulfert, A. H. Barnett, E. A. McDuffie, H. R. Steenson, and C. S. Brandt.

Reserved seat tickets for the meet are now on sale at the Kings County Wheelmen Club House in Brooklyn, and at the stores of A. C. Spalding & Brothers, 126 Nassau Street, and Humber & Co., 518 Broadway.

The particular attention of all competitors is called by the management to the rule which does not allow a man to ride a machine with step, or with lamp bracket on the front forks. This is done to minimize the chances for accidents.

ZIEGLER IN FINE FORM.

Rides an Exhibition Mile, Paced by Quad, in 1:58 3-5.

WILKESBARRE, Penn., June 26.—Otto Ziegler showed greatly improved form in the second day's meeting of the West End Wheelmen in this city to-day. Ziegler won the half-mile, was third in the one-mile open, and rode a mile exhibition behind the Giant Quad team in 1:58 3-5.

Edward Cannon Bald again captured the mile open race, for which eight as good men as America can produce qualified. As they lined up on the tape it was Bald on the pole, Cabanne, Otto Ziegler, Jr.

Coulter, E. C. Johnson, Dirnberger, Ziegler, L. C. Johnson, and Sims in the order named. Sims had his suspension raised by Chairman Gideon for these races to-day. With this great field the rush for the tandem, the position behind which is always an advantage, was a race in itself. Bald gained the position, Ziegler, Cabanne, and Sims behind him. Dirnberger fell violently, and L. C. Johnson was thrown over him; Coulter quit. Bald swung wide at the turn for the finish, Cabanne close at his side, and Ziegler hugged the pole. The latter led down the stretch, but fifty yards from home Bald and Cabanne passed him in their game fight. Bald won by a foot, with Ziegler a close third. Sims was fourth.

Cabanne made a great win in the two-mile handicap, going from scratch to first position in 4:32.

Cabanne, Titus, and Coulter started scratch with twelve men at long marks ahead of them at a mile and a half. When the bell rang there were two bunches, one of seven and one of eight men, about fifty yards apart. Titus pulled the back bunch up, and at the three-quarter the entire field went together and rounded into the turn seven abreast. Twenty yards from home Cabanne worked through and passed Barry, who was leading, and who took second, close up. Titus was a close third, and seven or eight men were directly behind the winner.

Douglass, the half-mile swimming champion of the world, rode finely in all of to-day's Class A contests, winning in the quarter-mile in 0:33, and the mile handicap from sixty yards in 2:19, and taking second in the mile open. The summaries:

Mile Open, Class B.—Bald won, Cabanne second, Ziegler third, Sims fourth. Time—2:08 4-5.

Half-Mile Open, Class B.—Ziegler won, Coulter second, Jenney third, L. C. Johnson fourth, Brown fifth. Time—1:02 3-5.

Two-Mile Handicap, Class B.—Cabanne (scratch) won, Barry (210 yards) second, Titus (scratch) third. Time—4:32.

Mile, Paced, Exhibition.—Ziegler, 1:58 3-5, State record.

Johnson and Weinig at Bethlehem.

BETHLEHEM, Penn., June 26.—Champion Johnson and Manager Eck were joined here today by A. E. Weinig of Buffalo, one of the fastest Class A riders in New-York State, who to-morrow will turn professional by participating in the races here. Weinig will act as pacemaker for Johnson at Cologne, in Europe, when the record breaker represents America in the races for the international championships. Weinig says he turns professional because he thinks professional races will soon be the most interesting events in cycling in this country.

Purse for the Crack "Pros."

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 26.—Sanger, Tyler, and Johnson have signed an agreement to race here on July 2 under the auspices of the Horsemen's Association for a cash stake of $1,500.

AMONG THE WHEELMEN.

Cyclists wishing to join the League of American Wheelmen will be furnished application blanks and necessary information by addressing Cycling Department of The New-York Times.

—Entries for the fifth annual race meet of the Riverside Wheelmen close to-day with C. H. Weeks, 232 West One Hundred and Fourth Street. Ample accommodations will be provided for the checking of wheels at the field, and every effort will be made to insure the safety and comfort of those who ride there. The track is rapidly being put into shape, and will be in condition for riding to-day. The Riversides guarantee that the track will be absolutely safe, and the turns banked higher than ever before.

—The programme of races for the Springfield Bicycle Club's September tournament will be announced in a few days. As one of the special features, it is proposed to have an hour's ride against time at the close of the other scheduled races on the last day, when it is hoped that all previous records will be broken, and that nearly if not quite twenty-nine miles will be ridden within the hour.

—The bicycle carnival of the New-Jersey Athletic Club, to be held on July 4, is attracting a great deal of attention. All the promiment Class A riders in this district are sending in their entries, and advance sale of reserved seats is something that is certainly pleasing to the officers of the club. Entries close with James E. Sullivan, 241 Broadway, to-day.

—Capt. Schupp of the New-York Wheelmen has scheduled the following club runs: July 4, to Boonton, N. J.; July 7, to Tarrytown, N. Y.; July 14, to Coney Island; July 21, to Plainfield, N. J.; July 28, to Far Rockaway, L. I. The start in all cases will be made from the clubhouse at 8:30 A. M.

—Runs for the Pequod Wheelmen have been arranged as follows: July 4, to Townsville, S. I.; July 7, to Freeport, L. I.; July 14, to Englewood, N. J.; July 21, to Coney Island; July 28, to Orange, N. J. All runs start from the clubhouse, 210 East Nineteenth Street, at 9 A. M.

—The Canadian customs department has decided that tourists' bicycles may be admitted free of duty on affidavit that the machines are the riders' personal property, that they are not carried into Canada for the purpose of sale, and that they are necessary for the journey contemplated.

—The next regular meeting of the Quill Club Wheelmen will be held at the clubrooms tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 4 o'clock. There will be an important meeting of the Race Committee of the club at the same place following the regular meeting.

—The Amity Wheelmen are working hard to secure a new asphalt pavement from Greenpoint to Eastern Parkway. They recently appointed a committee of three thoroughly to look into the matter and report at a meeting to be held at 262 Manhattan Avenue next Tuesday evening.

—This evening the Amity Wheelmen will have a run to Howe's, down the cycle path. On Aug. 25 the club's five-mile road race will be run over the Jamaica Turnpike. The Amity's annual century will be held on July 14, Bay Shore being the objective point.

—Entry blanks for the century run of the Associated Cycling Clubs of New-Jersey on June 6, from Newark to Asbury Park, can be obtained at the business office of The New-York Times, or will be forwarded by mail upon application.

—Entry blanks for the annual meet of the League of American Wheelmen June 11 and 13 at Asbury Park can be secured at the business office of The New-York Times, or will be sent by mail upon application.

—Fred Nash of the Good Roads Association is in pretty bad shape. While riding on the cycle path last Sunday he was run into by a "scorcher" and, in addition to receiving a bad shake up, had his arm dislocated.

—"Billy" Madden, who gained considerable notoriety as the one-time manager of John L. Sullivan, has arranged a bicycle race for women, to take place in Rochester on Saturday.

—Survivors' medals and photographs of the riders in the Long Island century run held on June 8 can be had of Alexander Schwalbach, at 1,217 Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn.

—The Ferry Association of Toronto, Ontario, has wired a liberal offer to a triangular race between Johnson, Sanger, and Tyler, to take place there on July 1.

—The aristocratic cycling set of Williamsburg has organized as a club, and proposes to exist on lines similar to those established by the Cycle Club of Brooklyn.

—A club has just been organized in Freehold, N. J., under the title of the Zimmy Cycling Club. The champion is President of the organization.

—The pacing at the Kings County Wheelmen's meet at Manhattan Beach on Saturday will be done by three tandems, a triplet, and a "quad."

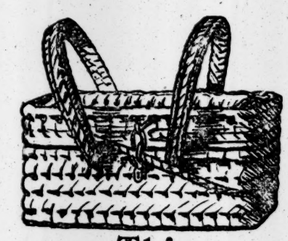
—The ordinance just passed compelling all passenger vehicles to carry lamps after dark is much appreciated by cyclists.

—The Brooklyn Bicycle Club will go to Rye Beach on Sunday and make the return trip on the Glen Island boat.

—"Teddy" Goodman of the Riversides is riding at the Manhattan Beach track daily, and is doing fast work.

—The Bushwick Wheelmen will have their fourth annual excursion on July 13.

—"Charlie" Earl and O. W. Brandt are riding tandem.



This School Girl's Lunch Basket

Contains no dyspepsia. Beneath its lid are some delicate buns, fried chicken and apple pie. The shortening used for the buns and pie was

Cottolene

The chicken was fried in it, too, making a feast for a queen. All the indigestible features of such an appetizing lunch disappear if the food is prepared with Cottolene. Food cooked with Cottolene possesses a delicate flavor, is never heavy or soggy, and is therefore adapted to the most delicate constitution.

Be sure and get the genuine Cottolene in one, three and five pound tins, with trade mark—steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Made only by

HOBART WINS FROM PIM

An American at Last Defeats the English and Irish Champion.

NEW-YORKERS PLAYED GOOD TENNIS

Remarkably Steady, He Met Pim's Rushes with Fine Driving, and Put the Englishmen on the Defensive.

WEST NEWTON, Mass., June 26.—A great crowd visited the Neighborhood Club court to-day, the stands being packed, and great was the joy when the mighty Pim, champion of England and Ireland for years, lost his first match against an American player. Clarence Hobart did the job, and did it well, his brilliant game seldom showing to better advantage.

Pim did not play as well as heretofore, for some unknown reason, but the crowd were perfectly satisfied with the result, and Hobart owns the town to-night. The New-Yorker to-day had what he usually lacks—steadiness—and his nerve was excellent, as he met Pim's rush in the first set with the grandest kind of driving.

But Ireland is still on top, as the long-armed Mahony brought Hovey up with a round turn, after the latter had won a set. Mahony now has a clean lead, and Pim is second, in spite of his defeat. Neither of the foreign players will appear in singles, but they will appear in a match in doubles against the champion pair, Hobart and Hovey. The foreigners are expected to lose, as Hobart and Hovey play well together, and probably will show better team work.

The morning match was a tiresome affair, Chase popping up lobs to Hovey for about an hour. When the Newton man smashed well, he scored games, but he made so many bad volleys that the Yale man easily won the deciding set.

The Pim-Hobart match was the first of the afternoon matches. Hobart won a close game to start with, mostly on errors, though Pim made three great places, one being a clean service ace. Then there was a great fight for nine games more, Hobart starting over his fast forehanders and Pim banging them back with equal speed. Hobart either led by the odd game or kept the score even up to 5, playing a tearing game. Pim tried running in on the service, but a few clean passes by Pim sent him back, and he contented himself with pounding away at the Irishman's back hand. Pim's strokes became weak after the tenth game, and Hobart ran two straight in fine style by fine placing. The score by points was:

Hobart	6	4	2	6	2	2	4	4	2	4	4	—	40
Pim	4	2	4	4	4	4	2	2	4	4	1	2	—	37

Hobart played rather poorly at the beginning of the next set, and Pim kept the lead up to the fifth game, the New-Yorker's drives striking near the top of the net. He got them over afterward, however, and, though Pim played well on the defensive, he seemed to have lost his steadiness and was either outpaced in long rallies or was forced so hard that he banged short ones into the net. Hobart ran four straight on him, taking the set and match amid wild applause. The points went as follows:

Hobart	5	2	1	4	2	4	4	4	4	—	30

Pim seemed to take his defeat with composure and declined to make excuses. He won 11 points on placing, 19 on outs, 27 on nets, and 1 on Hobart's double fault, the New-Yorker placing 15 balls safely, and taking 29 on outs, 22 on nets, and 4 on Pim's double faults.

Mahoney played great tennis against Hovey, and, after losing the first set, disappointed the crowd's hopes of another American victory by playing so well at the net that he drove Hovey to lobbing tactics.

Hovey's placing was better than his opponent's at first, but the Irishman's long, swinging strokes began to hit in the corners and along the lines with such accuracy that in the second and third sets Hovey was on the defensive constantly, Mahoney dancing around the net and volleying and smashing in effective style. The set was close enough, but Hovey could not stay with his long-armed opponent, and captured just one lone game on the third. Toward the end of the match Mahoney was superior in brilliance and in steady play, some of his back-hand smashes from back in the court being little short of marvelous.

The summary of the match by points:

FIRST SET.

Hovey	4	2	4	8	2	4	4	0	10	—	38
Mahoney	2	4	1	6	4	1	2	4	8	—	32

SECOND SET.

Mahoney	1	3	4	7	4	4	3	4	1	4	—	35
Hovey	4	5	1	5	1	0	5	2	4	2	—	29

THIRD SET.

Mahoney	4	4	5	7	4	3	4	—	31
Hovey	2	0	3	5	1	5	2	—	18

To-day's schedule is as follows:

Morning—Chase vs. Hobart.

Afternoon—Chase vs. Larned and Hobart and Hovey vs. Pim and Mahoney.

The summary:

Morning.—Malcolm Chace, Providence, R. I., beat Frederick H. Hovey, Newton Centre, Mass., 6—2, 2—6, 6—2.

Afternoon.—Clarence Hobart, New-York City, beat Joshua Pim, Ireland, 7—5, 6—3; H. S. Mahoney, Ireland, beat Frederick H. Hovey, Newton Centre, Mass., 3—6, 6—4, 6—1.

ALIMONY FOR MRS. JOHN GRAHAM

HER AGED HUSBAND MUST PAY HER $4,000 A YEAR.

Their Courtship Was Short and also Their Married Life—Dower Rights Signed Away.

A decree of limited divorce and $4,000 a year alimony have been awarded by Justice Lawrence of the Supreme Court to Mrs. Theresa C. Graham, in her suit against her septuagenarian husband, John Graham, who made a large fortune as a blacksmith and real estate speculator.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham were married only five years ago. Mrs. Graham was a spinster of forty years at that time, and Mr. Graham was a widower and sixty-five years old. They met at a church fair, and the courtship was very short.

They lived happily together for over a year, when Mrs. Graham discovered that her husband was transferring all his real estate to his daughter, the wife of Dr. J. N. McLaughlin, with whom Mr. Graham had lived previous to his second marriage. The property transferred included 157 West Twenty-first Street, 160 West Eighteenth Street, 100 West Forty-fifth Street, 159 West Twenty-first Street, 256 and 258 Seventh Avenue, and 217 West Forty-seventh Street.

Mrs. Graham thought this was strange, in view of the fact that within a day or two of her marriage she had signed a paper which she subsequently learned was a release of dower. Mr. Graham at that time, she declares, had offered her $5,000 to sign the paper, but she told him that she would not take the money, as she was not marrying him for money, but for love, and if he did not want to marry her under those circumstances he need not marry her at all. He told her that the paper was simply in relation to his business. She had confidence in him, and signed the paper, she asserts, without questioning it.

Soon after she ascertained that she had released her dower in his real estate. Mrs. Graham brought an action in the Supreme Court to have the paper set aside, and the Court of Appeals gave a judgment in her favor last November. Although that action was brought in November, 1891, Mr. Graham continued to live with his wife until within a day of the trial, which began on April 11, 1892, and then left her and went to live with his daughter and her husband, within a short distance of where Mrs. Graham was residing.

She met him occasionally on the street, and he expressed a desire, she said, to return to her, but he did not do so. She charged that his daughter was restraining him of his liberty, and was responsible for his failure to return to her, and she took habeas corpus proceedings for the purpose of getting possession of him. That proceeding was dismissed, and Mr. Graham swore that his daughter was not influencing him, and had not interfered with his return to his wife, and the decision was against Mrs. Graham.

Mrs. Graham then brought an action for a separation, upon the ground of abandonment and failure to support her.

In his decision, Justice Lawrence grants Mrs. Graham a separation, and says she may take proceedings, if necessary, to enforce the collection of the alimony allowed to her.

A BIG FEE FOR M. J. MULQUEEN

He Gets $15,000 as Counsel for the Receiver of the Canal Street Bank.

Judge Ingro of the Superior Court handed down a decision yesterday, allowing Michael J. Mulqueen, ex-Mayor Gilroy's son-in-law, a fee of $15,000 for services rendered to Antonio Rasines, receiver of the Canal Street Bank.

A number of the stockholders of the bank protested vigorously against this fee as being exorbitant, and when the receiver filed his report allowing it, they put in formal objections through counsel. Despite this, however, the Court decides that the fee should be paid, with costs and an extra allowance of $250, making a total of $16,234.50.

Of this sum, Mr. Mulqueen has already been paid $6,500, and the receiver, under the court's order, will now pay over the balance. Judge Ingro also allows Receiver $4,451.20 as commissions, and $275 for stenographer's fees.

The depositors of the bank have so far received 90 per cent. of their claims.

VERDICT AGAINST MILLINERS.

The Watt Sisters Lose a Suit Against an Insurance Company.

Catharine A. and Margaret Watt were accused yesterday of having attempted to swindle the Greenwich Fire Insurance Company.

Under the name of John Watt & Co. the two women carried on a millinery business at 249 Eighth Avenue. Their stock was insured for $2,000. Their place was burned out Jan. 7, 1893, and they declared that their goods had been damaged to the amount of $1,924.68.

The insurance company refused to pay, upon the ground that the plaintiffs' proofs of loss were fraudulently made. It was asserted that the amount of the purchase books had been raised, and the assertion was sustained by the testimony of David N. Carvalho, the handwriting expert.

The milliners brought suit, and a jury in the Court of Common Pleas, before Judge Bookstaver, yesterday rendered a verdict against them.

NEWS OF THE COURTS IN BRIEF

—Mrs. Nathalie Alexandre, widow of James Joseph Alexandre, who died on August 8 last, has been appointed the guardian of the persons of her two children, Jerome, aged nine, and Leonie, aged four years, and the United States Trust Company is appointed the guardian of their estates. Each of the children will have an income of $20,000 a year.

—The Grand Jury yesterday found indictments against Stephen Ryan, James Ball, Tilley Carney, and Andrew Carpenter in connection with the first degree for their alleged complicity in the death of James Welsh, the Boston sailor, who was found murdered on the morning of June 21 in front of Lynch's saloon at the Bayard street.

—By a decision of Justice Lawrence of the Supreme Court Alfred H. Lorton and other successors of Lewis Lorton are defeated in the claim which they presented against the city to recover $50,000 damages for being deprived of their alleged rights in and to the water-front property along West Street, near Spring Street.

—Judge McAdam in the Superior Court yesterday issued a writ of mandamus returnable Saturday upon the application of Thomas Goggy, directing Commissioner of Public Works Brookfield to reinstate him as a laborer in the department. Goggy says he is a veteran fireman.

—Judge McAdam in the Superior Court yesterday granted Thomas B. Warner an absolute divorce from his wife Mary. The couple were married on May 31, 1891. W. J. McGrath was named as co-respondent.

—Judge McAdam in the Superior Court yesterday granted the Fulton, Wall Street, and Cortlandt Street Ferries Railroad Company an extension of time to begin the construction of its road.

THE KENTUCKY FIGHT.

The fight in the Democratic Party in Kentucky is not simply over the question of the currency, though that is, of course, the chief element in it. Complicating this are matters of personal rivalry between leading Democrats and other matters of local feeling. Senator Blackburn, who is the candidate of the free-silver men for re-election to the Senate, has a strong personal following of devoted friends, some of whom support him in spite of his currency views, with which they do not agree. In like manner Hardin, who is the candidate of the silver men for Governor, has a number of warm personal friends among the sound-money men, who would be glad to support him if he stood on a sound financial platform. In the matter of organization and skill, resource and energy in the ordinary forms of political management, the silver men undoubtedly have the advantage. They have a greater number of the members of the County Committees and of the class whose main interest is politics, and who watch that interest closely the year around and so are better prepared for any struggle when it comes. A considerable number of this class, with no especial convictions of their own, have been persuaded that the tide of popular sentiment was running in the direction of free silver, and have prepared to take advantage of the tide.

This state of things explains how the fight in the convention came over the question whether the nomination should be made before or after the adoption of the platform. The silver men felt themselves stronger on the first, the sound-money men stronger on the second, and the latter have won. The platform of the majority of the committee makes a terse and forcible statement of the tariff issue, opposes the anti-Catholic movement, and then reaffirms the National platform of 1892, thanks the National Administration "for its courageous and statesmanlike management of public affairs," and expresses "undiminished confidence in the Democracy and patriotism" of President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle. This report was sustained by eight of the thirteen members of the committee.

Eleven of the committee were chosen by districts, and of these seven were sound-money men. It will be seen that on the issue of unlimited coinage the sentiment of the Kentucky Democrats, listed by the direct votes of their delegates in the choice of the Committee on Resolutions, is heavily in favor of sound money. The proportion is more than five to three.

Unquestionably this is a very great triumph for the cause of sound money. It is a great gain that there has been an earnest and aggressive fight by the sound-money men. Heretofore these have been content to rub along with concessions to the inflationists and the adoption of ambiguous professions, trusting to the chapter of accidents to keep them from the consequences of their timidity. Had they followed the same course this year there would have been "harmony" in the party, the inflationists knowing well enough that in the Senate they could continue to extort concessions. That the sound-money men resolved to fight and give or take no quarter was largely due to Mr. Carlisle, who went into the State and waged a campaign for the aggressive policy of the Administration that entitles him to the respect and gratitude of all the honest men of the country. We hope that this is the beginning of the end and that when the inflationists have finally been refused any concessions such as have been granted now for nearly a score of years Congress will take up the question of real currency reform and push it to an honorable solution.

THE POLICE AND POLICE COURTS.

Since it was made certain that the tenure of office of the Tammany Police Justices would cease at midnight on June 30, some of them have seemed anxious to make the public relief as great as possible. Instead of so conducting themselves as to raise doubt as to the justice of terminating their official career and to produce sympathy for their efforts to prolong it, they have behaved in a manner to convince everybody that the sooner they departed from the bench the better. They have been at some pains to show how important to the cause of police reform it was to legislate them out of office and to create an entirely new board of magistrates.

It is a fact that the police courts can do more to obstruct or to promote the efficiency of the Police Department in the enforcement of the laws than any other agency in the whole system of municipal administration, and it is a matter of the utmost importance that the Police Commission and the police courts should be able and disposed to work together. They used to work together, with the results that were disclosed by the investigation of last year. When the Commissioners sold appointments or divided them as political spoils and shared in the profits that came from permitting violations of law out of which money could be made, the Police Justices worked in entire harmony with them. In those days arrests could be made with assurance that the desired discrimination would be exercised "in court." The "pull" would be sure to work. If the object was to bring the keepers of saloons or disorderly houses to terms, they would be sure to come to terms. The hand of the magistrate was on the screws. If a policeman went too far, he could be checked. If he did not understand his business, it could be taught him. The whole system of lax or irregular enforcement of law, and of extortion from those who were allowed to violate it, had its chief bulwark in the police courts.

Since the head of the Police Department was changed and Commissioners were put in office whose purpose was to have the force do its full duty, to maintain discipline, and to have all the laws enforced impartially, the police courts, or some of them, have become an obstruction. Officers who have done their duty under orders from those in authority have met with rebuff and rebuke, and arrested persons have been discharged regardless of evidence. The Police Board could never succeed in its purpose of holding the force to a high standard of efficiency and discipline and of enforcing the laws strictly, regardless of pothouse politicians and their "pulls," if the present police courts were to continue in existence.

There is every reason to believe that the new magistrates, who will take possession of those courts next Monday morning, will co-operate heartily with the Police Department in completing the reformation of the whole system of police administration in this city. These forces together can cleanse the city of the pollution which has been accumulating in years of Tammany rule, and can produce results which will fortify the resistance of all decent people to a return of that rule hereafter.

THE WAGES RECORD.

We continue to-day our list of the increases of wages granted since the latter part of March, adding advances made by about 70 concerns to about 48,000 employés. These totals do not include, however, a considerable number of companies or firms, and of workmen, affected by the agreements recently signed with respect to the wage scales in several branches of the iron and steel industry.

We began to publish the list on April 6, and installments of it appeared afterward on April 15, April 22, May 3, May 14, May 21, and June 5. In our news columns on the last-named date was published in compact form the entire list up to that time.

Not all of the new scales proposed by the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers have been accepted by the manufacturers, and the effect upon wages of those which have been accepted cannot be exactly ascertained, owing to the fact that they are sliding scales, based upon the selling prices of certain products. The scale to be observed for one year from July 1 by the manufacturers of iron or steel sheets has been signed, and it is based upon the price of sheets, instead of upon the price of bar iron, as is the case under the old agreement. The workmen are to receive 2 per cent. of the increase in every 10 per cent. advance in the price. As the price of sheets has already advanced and in all probability will be increased, the new scale gives an increase of wages. This settlement affects 20,000 workmen.

The tin-plate scale has been accepted, and it is based upon the selling price of tin plate. There has been only a slight advance of this price, but the increased cost of the bars and of the steel sheets rolled from them will compel further advances. "Wages will remain the same as last year," it is reported by the authorities, "except that twelve men in each mill will receive a slight addition." But, as we have said, higher prices for tin plate will be accompanied by higher wages, under the terms of the agreement. This settlement affects 12,000 men.

Our totals on June 5 were 278 companies or firms and 184,000 employés. The additions set forth below increase the number of companies or firms to about 348 and the number of employés affected to about 232,000. If the sheet and tin-plate workmen be added, the totals will be much larger. Several companies are included in the first of the following paragraphs:

Mahoning Valley and Shenango Valley iron furnaces, Ohio; 10 per cent. (second increase since April) granted on June 15. Many furnace plants involved. Wages scale of the early months of 1893 fully restored for 2,000 men.

Bethlehem Iron Company, South Bethlehem, Penn.; (increase of 11 per cent. to furnace men heretofore reported;) increase of from 5 to 10 per cent. on June 15 in all departments affected by the reduction made in January, 1894; 2,000 men benefited.

Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, Pueblo, Col.; capital, $10,000,000; 10 per cent. to a large number of employés.

Manufacturers of sanitary pottery ware at Trenton, N. J.; increase ranging from 10 to 40 per cent., and averaging more than 20 per cent. granted on June 16.

Illinois Steel Company, plants at North Chicago, South Chicago, Joliet, Ill., and Milwaukee, Wis., ranking second only to the Carnegie Steel Company; increase of 10 per cent. granted on June 20 to 7,000 men.

Bellaire Nail Works Company, Bellaire, Ohio; increase of 10 per cent., to take effect Aug. 1; 1,000 men. This is the second increase of 10 per cent. since April.

Crane Company, pipe fittings and brass goods, Chicago, Ill.; increase of 10 per cent., being a restoration of the scale paid early in 1893; 2,300 men.

Haydenville Manufacturing Company, Haydenville, Mass.; 10 per cent., to take effect on June 27.

Trenton Iron Company, Trenton, N. J.; wages of skilled workmen increased by 10 per cent. on June 17.

Runyon Iron Company, Pittsburg, Kan.; 10 per cent.

Pennsylvania Bolt and Nut Works, Lebanon, Penn.; 10 per cent.; 1,000 men.

Bannockburn Mills, woolen goods, Pottstown, Penn.; increase of 12½ per cent. on June 15.

George C. Hetzel & Co., worsteds and woolens, Chester, Penn.; increase of 7½ per cent. for weavers on June 10.

John Rhodes Warp Company, Millbury, Mass.; 10 per cent. on June 15.

Glenside Woolen Mills, Skaneateles Falls, N. Y.; 10 per cent.

The J. R. Montgomery Company, cotton warps, Windsor Locks, Conn.; reported that there will be an increase of 12½ per cent. on July 1.

Jeffrey Mills, cotton goods, East Jeffrey, N. H.; rates paid in 1893 restored on June 15.

Glenallan Mills, cotton goods, Winchendon, Mass.; old rates to be restored on July 1.

The Lockwood Company, cotton goods, Waterville, Me.; wages increased on June 17.

The Neuburger Silk Company, Paterson, N. J.; wages increased on June 15.

Conshohocken Tube Works, Conshohocken, Penn.; increase of 10 per cent. on June 15.

Germantown Tool Works, Germantown, Penn.; 10 per cent., to take effect July 1.

Riter & Conlay, boilermakers, Pittsburg, Penn.; 10 per cent. June 20.

James Lappan & Co., boilermakers, Pittsburg, Penn.; 10 per cent. June 20.

The James Hunter Machine Company, North Adams, Mass.; 10 per cent. on June 22, being a restoration of the rate paid in 1893; 130 men.

Tilden Iron Mine, Gogebic Range; wages increased on June 1 "to the rate that prevailed before the panic"; 700 men.

Riverside Woolen Company, Lebanon, N. H.; old rate of wages restored.

The H. M. Myers Company, shovels, Beaver Falls, Penn.; increase of 10 per cent.

North Lebanon Iron Furnaces, North Lebanon, Penn.; 10 per cent. from July 1; 300 men.

East Lebanon Iron Company, East Lebanon, Penn.; 10 per cent. from June 25; 300 men.

Johnson Steel Company, Lorain, Ohio; increase of 15 per cent. on June 25; 200 men.

These increases—with the exception of six, affecting less than 5 per cent. of the entire number of workmen—were granted voluntarily. It will be noticed that in two or three instances the increase reported was the second advance in the last six or seven weeks. This was the case at the furnaces of the great iron-producing district of the Mahoning and Shenango Valleys, where the full rate paid before the panic has been restored.

It should be borne in mind that many employers, even in the textile industries, did not reduce wages during the period of depression. Our complete list shows that in many instances the old rate has been fully restored, and it is true that many an increase of 10 per cent. brings back the full scale of the early months of 1893. We have published no record of the factories in which work has been resumed after a long period of idleness, or of those in which the number of employés has recently been increased by large additions, but we could present a list of nearly 300 plants in which idleness has been supplanted since April 1 by activity which has given work to about 70,000 employés, and the enlargements of working forces in going mills would not be included.

Some weeks ago we mentioned in our list of increases the Raritan and Somerset Woolen Mills, at Raritan, N. J., The American Wool and Cotton Reporter having stated, on May 30, that an increase of 10 per cent. had been granted there, and that the mills were "running night and day to fill orders." The same journal, however contradicted the report on June 6 by authority of the Treasurer of the mills, who asserted that wages had not been increased and that the company had looms standing idle for lack of orders. Other trade journals which have since reported that the mills were running night and day appear to have been misinformed. The mills in question should be withdrawn from our list.

The new tariff, which the Republican leaders and Republican press asserted could not fail to paralyze industry so long as it should remain in force, is now not quite ten months old.

THE STREETS AND THE CONTROLLER.

It is evident that Controller Fitch had an ungrateful task to perform in entering his protest against the provision of enough money to keep the streets clean. The Controller holds a brief, so to speak, in the Board of Estimate, against all the Mayor's appointees and all their works, and it was in conformity with his general retainer that he had to object to Col. Waring getting what he wanted. At the same time his remarks showed a consciousness that cleanliness is popular and that filth is not, and his protest was mainly directed to the danger of increasing the appropriation for street cleaning as a precedent. It is "an entering wedge."

But really the Controller need not be troubled about the precedent. When the people of New-York, including the members of the Board of Estimate, are convinced that the money appropriated for an important public purpose has been spent with honesty and judgment, and that there is a deficit merely because the appropriation was insufficient, then the precedent set in this case may be followed. But under these conditions there is no danger that it will be abused.

The fact is that the appropriation is insufficient because nobody knew what it cost to clean the streets of New-York and to keep them clean. The only way to ascertain the cost of that operation is to perform it, and Col. Waring is the first Commissioner of Street Cleaning who ever performed it. We know what it cost to keep the streets from half clean to abominably dirty, or, rather, we did not know even that, for there was a suspicion that a large part of the money was diverted from the work of street cleaning to the work of supporting "henchmen" of ward politicians in labor that could sometimes with difficulty be distinguished from idleness. But what it cost to keep the streets of New-York clean nobody knew until Col. Waring made the experiment.

The Controller does not do himself justice when he intimates that, with unlimited money to spend, "no particular ability will be required to get great and beneficial results in any department." This may be taken as implying that Col. Waring's predecessors were not less efficient than he, but only more scrupulous, and this is preposterous. The people do not want excuses for dirty streets; they want clean streets. A series of Commissioners have produced very plausible excuses, but Col. Waring is the only Commissioner who has produced clean streets. It is perhaps for that reason that the politicians regard him as a "theorist." The Board of Estimate was quite right in concluding, as one of them said, that the public seems to like clean streets. Even the Controller's remarks showed his consciousness that it was very bad politics to put any obstacles in the way of an official whose work is recognized with gratitude by every man and woman in New-York.

LORD SALISBURY'S STAFF.

The members of the House of Commons whom Lord Salisbury has called to his Ministry, pending the new elections, are likely to retain the same places should the elections be favorable to their party. Two of them at least are distinctly men of more original strength than Lord Rosebery was able to gather around him, the Liberal leaders having been somewhat faded in the lustre of Mr. Gladstone's long and splendid career.

The man who is most in the public eye is Mr. Balfour. He, by the way, is not, as our bimetallic friends declared he would be, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and his place of First Lord of the Treasury simply gives him the leadership of the House of Commons, for which he is admirably adapted. He will, however, have no direct influence on the financial policy of the Government, and if he had he would not be allowed to inject into it any of his academic notions on abstract finance. He is a philosopher of wide reading and habits of acute analysis, who, having applied the solvent of his acid skepticism to many of the pet ideas of literary England, went into politics with brilliant success. His convictions, though not so fluid as those of Mr. Gladstone, are sufficiently plastic for his new occupation, and his temper is a marvel of self-possession and energy. He has the air of saying to the English people: "Politics is of no more consequence than philosophy, and considerably less than golf, but our opponents are really too ridiculous for even the limited field of politics. We do not promise you great things. There is not much real greatness in the world, and you would not know it if we should offer it to you. But you can trust me and my colleagues for not making such a mess of it as the other fellows." And the secret of Mr. Balfour's popularity, which is great and of steady growth, is that the people have instinctive confidence in a man who has confidence in himself and little in them.

Mr. Chamberlain resembles Mr. Balfour in nothing but his imperturbable temper. He professes to be, and probably is, really in earnest, and nothing is further from his desire than to underestimate the importance of politics or to seem to use principles or policies as pawns in the game of vote getting. In the old Liberal Party he was a radical, and he has disowned none of his radicalism. He is the champion of State Socialism in as advanced a form as is consistent with British ideas of property and its rights, not only as to ownership, but in the government of the State. He has transferred to Birmingham and extended largely in England the American idea of party management by representative organization, and is probably more nearly a "boss" than any other English politician. His "machine" is elaborate, vast, always in order, and works with tremendous effect. It differs from what we call by the same name here in that its force is from below up, from the mass of voters to the leaders, and not in the reverse sense. His power, which is greater than that of any Commoner in England now, is due to the fact that he unquestionably has the confidence of his constituency. He would not be averse to the use of patronage, but no one commands much of that in England, or of money, but that, though largely used, is of no such effect as here. He is, moreover, a man whose ambition is broad as well as intense, and, though he has not the art and does not seem to have the wish to make friends, he is a very strong man and may go much further.

By their action in the King's Bridge franchise matter, the Aldermen made people doubt their honesty; the scheme for putting a light on every vehicle is calculated to make the sanity of the City Fathers a matter of no less uncertainty. Some premonition of impending doom has apparently turned whatever brains the board possesses.

Gravesend is a peculiar place. In other towns, when a man is convicted of a disgraceful crime and is sent to prison, the general public considers itself well rid of him, for a while, at least, and says so, and when he returns, after serving a well-deserved sentence, it is disposed to treat him with extreme coldness and subjects him to a long and often painful probation before admitting his right to associate with decent men on terms even approaching to equality. Gravesend has a different method. It looks upon the apprehension of its criminals as an outrageous piece of cruelty, sheds tears as the jail doors close upon them, and at the expiration of their terms goes forth in coaches and escorts the exiles home with loud cries of joy. Such an event took place this week, not for the first time, when an official who had borne a prominent part in the election frauds of 1893 was released from the Kings County Penitentiary. Crowds of Gravesenders welcomed the fellow back as though he were an innocent victim of despotic tyranny. He held a "reception"—in a ginmill, of course—and has now taken his place in the town as one of whom its citizens approve and whom they delight to honor.

If it is a fact that Brooklyn pays higher salaries to teachers in her public schools than does any other city in this country, she has good reason to be proud, and should not allow the considerations of a "mean prudence," such as Mayor Schieren brings forward, to rob her of the high distinction. Well-paid teachers are likely to be competent teachers; those who are underpaid—as is the case almost everywhere—cannot reasonably be expected to show either competence or enthusiasm in their work.

TO INSPECT AMERICAN STEAMERS

Naval Constructor Fernald to See if They Fulfill the Requirements for Carrying the Ocean Mail.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Secretary Herbert has ordered Naval Constructor Fernald, stationed at the New-York Navy Yard, to inspect the steamers St. Louis, New-York, and Paris, at New-York, to determine whether they comply with the provisions of the Postal Subsidy act and Governmental regulations affecting the ocean mail service. As the owners of these vessels desire to take advantage of the act of Congress and enter into a contract to carry the mails from New-York to Antwerp, touching at Southampton fifty-two times a year for ten years, it is necessary to determine whether they fill the required conditions of first-class vessels of 8,000 tons, capable of maintaining a twenty-knot speed at sea in ordinary weather.

Constructor Fernald's immediate object will be to learn whether the vessels are readily convertible into auxiliary cruisers and are prepared to mount four six-inch rapid-fire guns, weighing, with carriages and appurtenances, nearly 30,000 pounds each. Subsequently the ships will be speeded at sea in the presence of a naval board. Among the provisions of the contract, each of these ships will be compelled to take as apprentices at least one American-born boy under twenty-one years of age, for each 1,000 tons of displacement, and these boys must be educated in the duties of seamanship, and will rank as petty officers and receive reasonable pay for their services.

It is likely that several naval officers of high rank will take advantage of a clause in the new law, that enables them to volunteer for service on these vessels, continuing on furlough pay and receiving increased compensation from the company. As soon as the steamer St. Paul is ready, she will also be inspected and the contract put into operation.

"AS YOU LIKE IT" IN THE OPEN AIR

An Excellent Performance on the Richmond County Club Grounds.

A performance of "As You Like It," in open air, attracted about 350 persons to the Richmond County Country Club, on Staten Island, yesterday afternoon. The performance was an excellent one. Miss Electra Malema, who was cast as Celia and Audrey, did not appear, but Miss Alice E. Ives read the parts so well that the play was not marred. The cast follows:

Orlando.Miss Oldcastle (Countess of Castelvecchio)
The Duke and Duke Frederick...Charles Marriott
Amiens.....A. F. Stanford
Jaques.....A. F. Stanford
Oliver.....W. J. Romain
Charles.....L. M. B. Pratt
Adam.....W. J. Romain

W. C. Whitney's Cruise.

GREENPORT, L. I., June 26.—Ex-Secretary of State William C. Whitney arrived at Greenport to-day on board the steam yacht Columbia, which he has chartered for this season from Mr. Ladew. The yacht stopped long enough to take on board a party of friends, and steamed away to the eastward.

READY FOR THE GOVERNOR

Plans of the Seventh for Entertaining the Commander in Chief.

WEST POINT CAVALRY EXHIBITION

The Bicycle Officially Recognized—A Wheelman's Rapid Gathering of the Marking Flags.

STATE CAMP, PEEKSKILL, June 26.—Clouds to-day gave the men of the Seventh Regiment a welcome respite from the scorching they have been suffering under a blazing sun the last three days.

Gov. Morton will witness the manoeuvres of a fine, healthy-looking regiment when he comes to camp with his staff to-morrow. The Seventh always looks fine and healthy, and if the Governor were to come unannounced any day he would get "the worth of his money."

The Governor is expected to reach camp at 12:30, or, to be precise, as is fitting in a military camp, at 12:29. He will be accompanied by most of the members of his staff, and will have a formal reception. The officers will be presented with as much of the pomp and circumstance of glorious war as has been seen in these parts in many a year. The Governor will then review the regiment and will witness the guard mount and dress parade. In the evening the Seventh's band will give a concert.

The Seventh will have as guests the West Point Cavalry, which will give an exhibition drill. This is in no way connected with the visit of the Governor, as the West Pointers will come at the invitation, in behalf of the regiment, of Col. Appleton, his request for authority to extend this courtesy having been honored.

It is expected that a considerable party of State officials, and numerous friends of the regiment from New-York City will be here, and the occasion will doubtless be a notable one.

For the first time in the history of the Guard, the bicycle has come into official use.

Orderlies and messengers use the wheel, and it has been found of great advantage in expediting the work of the camp. The camp ground, level as a floor, and crossed with roads, forms an admirable bicycling field, and from one side to the other, from the headquarters tents to the furthest flanks it is but a question of a few minutes with an orderly on a wheel.

Adjt. Gen. McAlpin said to-day that bicycles were of great assistance in the dispatch of business, and possibly the uses to which they can be put may be further increased.

This morning, for almost the first, if not for the very first time, the wheel was brought into use on the drill grounds. At the close of the morning routine a wheelman was employed to collect and bring in the "markers"—the little flags planted at the outskirts of the ground. He elicited some applause by making a swift run, guiding his wheel with one hand, while with the other he gathered in the flags, never once stopping or slackening his speed.

The Seventh received some high compliments to-day from Gen. Henry of the Army who is a visitor. After the morning drill he put Companies E and F through a special drill. At the close he called Major Abrams to the field and complimented him on the fine drilling of the men. He said he would consider it an honor to command a regiment of such men.

There will be a special order of drill to-morrow. It will be passing up a defile, and is to be tried because of the interest aroused among officers by one of Gen. Henry's lectures. Major Kip, with the First Battalion, will defend the camp, and Major Abrams, with the Second Battalion, will make up the attacking party.

Corporal Robinson of Company G, while sliding to a base during a game of ball this afternoon, sprained his ankle.

Private Paul C. Schultz of Company A, while drilling stepped in a hole and fell. His cartridge box slipped around so that he fell upon it, severely injuring him in the abdomen.

GRADUATING DAY AT DARTMOUTH

Interesting Exercises Crowd the Day with Pleasant Services.

HANOVER, N. H., June 26.—The numbers attending commencement exercises here this year are smaller than usual. The most people have been in town to-day.

The ballots for Alumni Trustee have been counted, and the vote, as announced by the Executive Committee, was as follows: E. D. Redington, '61, of Chicago, had 388; A. K. Hamilton of Milwaukee, 129; D. Connor, '65, of Cincinnati, 122; C. A. Willard, '77, of Minneapolis, 364; scattering, 9; imperfect, 3; total votes, 1,093.

The following officers of Phi Beta Kappa Society have been elected: President—S. W. McCall, '74, Winchester, Mass.; Vice President—Prof. C. F. Richardson, Hanover; Secretary—Prof. T. W. D. Worthen, Hanover; Treasurer—Prof. F. P. Emery, Hanover; Auditor—C. P. Chase. College Treasurer A. K. Hamilton, '63, and H. H. Hilton, '90, were elected honorary members.

At the meeting of the Alumni Association, Judge W. A. Field, '55, was elected President, in place of A. W. Tenney of Brookl

BALFOUR ON DISSOLUTION

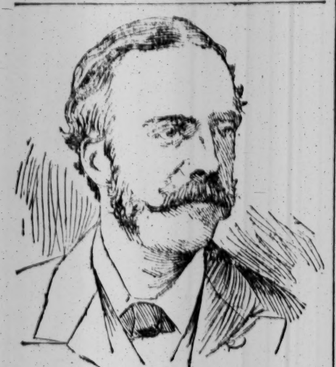
Unionists Accepted Office for No Other Policy or Purpose.

CHAMBERLAIN AND THE COLONIES

Dufferin, Ambassador to France, On His Way to Consult with Salisbury About the Foreign Portfolio.

LONDON, June 26.—Speaking at Ardwick to-day, Mr. Balfour declared that the only policy of the new Government now was to dissolve Parliament. He added that for no other policy or purpose would the Unionists have accepted office.

Mr. Balfour has issued an address to his constituents in East Manchester asking for re-election upon the occasion of his accepting office in the new Cabinet. He writes: "The late Government has declared its inability to further conduct the business of the country. Practice and public convenience required it to dissolve Parliament, but this duty it has cast upon



The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour.

Lord Salisbury, who has accepted office in order to appeal to the electors at the earliest moment."

Mr. Balfour proceeds to say: "This is not the occasion to explain in detail the policy which, if a Unionist majority is returned to the next Parliament, the Unionist Government will pursue. Such a policy could not be attempted with credit and honor in the present position of the parties in the House of Commons. It must, therefore, be left to a happier period to illustrate the principles we have always maintained, that it is not by destroying ancient institutions or by restless manipulation of the constitutional machinery that imperial security and domestic progress can be most surely attained."

Mr. Chamberlain to-day issued an address to his constituents in West Birmingham. Its tenor is similar to that of Mr. Balfour's address. The new Colonial Secretary emphasizes the necessity of dissolving Parliament at the earliest time possible. He blames the Liberals for not dissolving Parliament.

He adds that the policy of the new Government cannot be suitably discussed until after the dissolution, but he declares that the Unionists are absolutely agreed, if the elections place them in power, to lay aside the wild projects of constitutional change and destructive legislation forming the staple proposals of the last Government and to devote their principal attention to constructive measures and social reforms.

At the same time they will be prepared to maintain the defensive resources of the empire, and to seek by all legitimate means to extend British influence and commerce in the vast regions under the British flag.

Mr. Chamberlain will make no further address to the electors previous to his nomination.

Inquiries show that the appointment of the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain as Secretary of State for the Colonies is met with great satisfaction in colonial circles. Mr. Chamberlain has always been favorably disposed toward the colonies, and recognizes the importance of strengthening and developing their resources.

The various colonial agents in London are making arrangements to visit and take leave of the Marquis of Ripon, the retiring Colonial Secretary. They will afterward visit Mr. Chamberlain.

The House of Commons was crowded at the opening of the sitting at noon to-day when Sir William Harcourt announced that Lord Salisbury was engaged in the formation of a Ministry.

Mr. Labuchère (Radical) asked Mr. Akers-Douglas, the chief Conservative whip, what would be the procedure next week and when a general election would take place.

Mr. Akers-Douglas replied that the Conservatives were most anxious to dissolve at the earliest possible moment. He then moved that writs be issued for the re-election of the members of the House of Commons who had accepted office in the new Ministry.

The House then adjourned until Monday.

PARIS, June 26.—The Marquis of Dufferin, British Ambassador to France, started for England to-day to confer with Lord Salisbury regarding the latter's offer to him of the Foreign portfolio in the new Cabinet.

CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN OFFENDED

Salisbury Sends a Messenger to Him for His Official Seals.

LONDON, June 26.—The Daily News will to-morrow say that when Mr. Campbell-Bannerman, Secretary of State for War in the retiring Government, returned to his home Tuesday after presiding at a meeting of the Committee of the Unemployed, he found standing on the pavement a man who asked him for his official seals.

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman did not know his accoster, but, on inquiring who he was, learned that he was Mr. McDonnell, Lord Salisbury's secretary. The retiring War Minister suggested that the conversation be continued indoors, whereupon Mr. McDonnell repeated his silly and impertinent message.

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman refused to deliver the seals, saying that he had received them from the Queen, and would surrender them to her Majesty when he was commanded to do so.

The Daily News, commenting on the circumstance, will say:

"Lord Salisbury's action violated precedent and decency. It is only when a Minister is dismissed for misconduct, or bad behavior has disqualified him from admission to the presence of the sovereign, that such a course as that followed by Lord Salisbury is adopted."

The paper, which is the organ of the Liberals, will say it understands that the Queen took official leave of Lord Rosebery last Sunday at Windsor Castle very graciously. She intimated that under no previous Government had the arrangements in which she was personally concerned been better made.

ADDRESS OF THE LIBERAL PARTY

Great Reforms Were Thwarted by an Irresponsible Oligarchy.

LONDON, June 26.—The National Liberal Federation will issue a manifesto declaring that the Government was compelled to resign upon a snatch vote, following an unprecedented attack upon the honor of one of the most able and most popular of Ministers.

The Liberal Ministry, it adds, by its series of legislative and administrative triumphs, justified its title to be considered one of the most energetic Governments yet seen. The great reforms it carried through the House of Commons would have been law had they not been thwarted by an irresponsible oligarchy.

The House of Lords rejected the Home Rule and Employers' Liability bills. These, with the Welsh Disestablishment, the Irish Land, the Abolition of Plural Voting, and the Local Veto bills, are to-day demanded in the interests of the whole nation, but the most important matter is the Leeds resolution declaring that when the houses of Parliament come into conflict, the will of the representative chamber shall prevail.

Halsbury for Lord High Chancellor.

LONDON, June 26.—The Post, in its issue to-morrow, will make the statement, for which it claims to have authority, that Lord Halsbury will be Lord High Chancellor in the new Government, vice Lord Herschell.

KAISER GUEST OF THE NEW-YORK

Spanish and Portuguese Warships Will Have to Go Around the Skaw.

KIEL, June 26.—The Emperor and the German Admirals dined this evening on board the United States cruiser New-York, as the guests of Admiral Kirkland.

To-morrow the officers of the American squadron will give a grand ball. The New-York and Marblehead will start for Stockholm Friday. The Columbia and San Francisco will remain here a while.

The canal office announces that the authorities of the canal will allow only ships of under four and a half meters draft to pass through. In consequence of this decision, the Spanish and Portuguese warships will be obliged to go around the Skaw.

COLOGNE, June 26.—The Gazette says the Czar, King Humbert of Italy, and other friendly sovereigns have congratulated the Emperor upon the success of the Kiel celebration.

BERLIN, June 26.—The Emperor's speech to the visiting royal sovereigns at Kiel is regarded here as a counter-demonstration to the Russo-French fraternization.

PARIS, June 26.—The correspondent of Le Gaulois says it is probable that the German warships Bayern and Brandenburg will visit Brest and Cherbourg under the command of Admiral Knorr or Admiral von Reiche.

AN AUTOCRAT OF PICKPOCKETS.

A Wealthy Land Owner Who Ruled Over International Bands of Thieves.

MADRID, June 26.—The arrest of a wealthy landowner at Gatafe has led to the discovery that he is the leader of bands of pickpockets, whose scope is international.

A rich Gypsy named Montoya was recently robbed of $1,000 at the railway station at Aranjuez. The landowner was suspected, and his arrest followed.

The police inquiries show that under his direction other thieves work in Spain, France, and Italy. The prisoner was convicted some years ago, and sentenced to a term in the prison at San Sebastian, whence he escaped.

After gaining his liberty, he bought a splendid estate, saying that he was a retired merchant. When he was arrested, a day or so ago, he ordered a carriage and pair, in which he was driven to the jail in Madrid.

RUSSIAN BANKERS AND CHINA.

Shanghai Confidently Expects a War with Japan over Corea.

COLOGNE, June 26.—The Gazette's correspondent at St. Petersburg says that the leading Russian financiers are furiously angry at the action of Germany in supporting England in inducing China to refuse to accept Russia's loan proposals in their present form.

China's non-acceptance of the proposals involves her withdrawal of her recent concessions to Russia in connection with the Siberian Railway.

LONDON, June 26.—A dispatch from Shanghai to a local news agency says that the high officials in Shanghai are confidently expecting that war will ensue between Russia and Japan over the situation and administration of affairs in Corea within three months.

STORMS IN ENGLAND AND IRELAND

Two Persons Killed at Darlington and Hull's Tramway Station Destroyed.

LONDON, June 26.—Violent thunder storms prevailed to-day in England and Ireland.

A tramway station at Hull was struck by lightning, set on fire, and destroyed. Lightning also struck a tree adjacent to the royal pavilion at the agricultural show at Darlington. A number of persons had sought refuge under the tree from the rain. Two of them were killed and three were injured.

The Duke and the Duchess of York had just departed from the pavilion when the bolt fell. A number of deaths caused by the storms are reported from other places.

Colonial Ardor of a Paris Journal.

PARIS, June 26.—The Eclair urges the Government to take advantage of the troubles with Brazilians in French Guiana, which resulted in the killing of five French marines and the wounding of twenty others, formally claim the whole disputed territory, and annex the entire country to the banks of the Amazon.

Honduras and Murderers of Renton.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The State Department to-day received the gratifying information that the Government of Honduras has at last taken positive action toward bringing to justice the murderers of Charles W. Renton, an American citizen, who resided at Brewer's Lagoon, Honduras, with his wife and niece.

Commander Watson of the Ranger Ill.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Secretary Herbert received a cablegram yesterday announcing that Commander Eugene W. Watson of the Ranger, who has been at Guayaquil, Ecuador, since June 1, was seriously ill. The dispatch came from the executive officer of the Ranger, who gave no further details.

Norway Bill for National Defense.

CHRISTIANIA, June 26.—The Leftist leaders, Steen, Sivert, and Nielsen, have submitted a proposal for an internal loan of 12,000,000 kroner, to be devoted to purposes of national defense. The proposal has been referred to the Budget and Army Committees.

Britain's New Agent in Bulgaria.

LONDON, June 26.—Francis Elliot has been appointed Diplomatic Agent and Consul General at Sofia, Bulgaria, in succession to Sir A. Nicholson, who succeeds Ernest Satow, British Minister to Morocco. Mr. Satow was recently appointed Minister to Japan.

Navarro Reports Insurgent Defeats.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, June 26.—Gen. Navarro reports that his command has had several engagements with insurgents, killing twelve, wounding many, and capturing arms and other war material. Several of the Government troops were wounded.

Four Men Injured on the Lucania.

LIVERPOOL, June 26.—An explosion occurred in the coal bunker of the Cunard steamship Lucania as she was laying at anchor in the Mersey this morning, by which four men were injured. The vessel was not damaged.

Yacht Scotia Sunk in the Channel.

LONDON, June 26.—The steamer Penance of Plymouth came into collision with the yacht Scotia, also of Plymouth, in the Channel yesterday, and sank her. The owner of the Scotia and one of her crew were drowned.

Alexandre Dumas's Second Marriage.

PARIS, June 26.—The civil marriage ceremony of M. Alexandre Dumas and Mme. Réguier de la Bruyère was performed in this city this afternoon.

Dowager Duchess of Lansdowne Dead.

LONDON, June 26.—The Dowager Duchess of Lansdowne died at Perth at midnight last night. She was Baroness Nairne in her own right.

Denmark's Crown Prince in London.

LONDON, June 26.—Prince Frederick, Crown Prince of Denmark, has arrived in London, where he is the guest of the Prince and Princess of Wales. The latter is his sister.

Bessie Lee at "Black America."

The latest addition to the vocal forces of "Black America" is Miss Bessie Lee, a colored warbler of phenomenal voice. There is intense rivalry between this young woman and the Black Patti, each claiming to be the superior. Miss Lee made her first appearance Monday, singing "Suwanee River" and "The Cows Are in the Clover." She was enthusiastically received and the large crowd present compelled her to respond to several encores.

PACIFIC COAST MARKSMEN

Delegates to the National Schuetzen Fest Come to Town.

THEY RECEIVE A ROYAL WELCOME

To the Bund They Presented a Gold Brick—Prize Winners Among the Visitors—Some High Scores.

The first delegation of sharpshooters to the First National Schuetzen Fest, which will be opened here next Saturday and continue until July 8, arrived in this city yesterday and received a royal welcome from the officers of the bund and the Reception Committee.

The delegates came from California. They are the champions of the Pacific coast, and were selected from the German-American Schuetzen Associations of the far Western metropolis. With them were several American riflemen with excellent records, who will be joined later by other marksmen.

The California crack shots now here are William Ehrenpfort, August Jungblut, L.

Beudel, F. B. Schuster, George Albers, Max Schwab, H. M. Wieden, George Heim, Adolph Strecker, Emil Bloedau, F. O. Young, and D. B. Faktor, the latter being the Vice President of the San Francisco Schuetzen Verein and acting Captain of the German-American delegation. Mr. Young is a member of the San Francisco Rifle Club, and will attempt to carry off some of the prominent trophies.

The delegates arrived at the station of the Central Railroad of New-Jersey at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and were met by President William V. Weber of the Bund and the Reception Committee. The committee consisted of Otto Uehlein, Chairman; Fritz Baumann, Adolph Richter, Gus Zimmermann, Hermann Weber, and Charles F. Roedel. The delegates were provided with carriages and were driven to the Union Square Hotel, where they will be quartered during their stay in the city. A special breakfast had been arranged for the party. The menu card was headed: "Zum Empfang der San Francisco Schuetzen-Gesellschaft," and read as follows:

Fruits.
Omelette au Jambon.
Filet Mignon, au pomme friete.
Coffee and Tea.

After breakfast the guests rested for several hours, and after partaking of a hearty and tempting dinner, they were driven to points of interest about the city. The committee took particular pains in entertaining the Western guests, and most cordial welcome was extended to them wherever they went. At night they were taken in carriages, accompanied by a band, to the headquarters of the National Schuetzenbund, 12 St. Mark's Place. They were met with pyrotechnics and many cheers. Accompanying the delegation is Miss Ehrenpfort, an amateur markswoman, who has won many prizes in California.

The final meeting of the delegates of the National Schuetzenbund, prior to the festival, took place last night, and was largely attended. An unusually large amount of business was speedily disposed of and all of the committees reported the outlook for a successful tournament as exceedingly bright. President William V. Weber announced many additional valuable prizes to the good list of honorary awards, and his humorous remarks caused many peals of laughter and frequently evoked applause.

The proceedings were interrupted by the arrival of the California visitors, whose approach to the headquarters caused vociferous outbursts of welcome. Under the escort of Gus Zimmermann, they entered the hall and were by him introduced to the assemblage, when again tumultuous applause greeted them. After three hearty cheers had been given, D. B. Faktor, acting Captain of the visiting delegation, thanked the Eastern sharpshooters on behalf of his little band, and also presented the Bund with an honorary prize from the California riflemen, which consisted of a gold brick bearing the stamp of United States Assayer Selby. On the face of the brick is engraved a view of the Golden Gate, below which is inscribed: "Presented by the San Francisco Schuetzen Verein, San Francisco, Cal., 1895."

This valuable gift was received with cheers and was gracefully accepted by President Weber, who bade the guests welcome and proposed three more cheers, which were heartily given. All the delegates then cast aside business and devoted themselves especially to the sharpshooters from the West. So royally were the visitors cared for that several committees which had important business to transact were compelled to retire to rooms in other parts of the building, the main hall being speedily transformed into a room for jollification. Here the assemblage indulged in genuine German sociability for some hours.

Among the visitors are several who have won high honors at the Western Schuetzenfest, held in Milwaukee last week. The best record was made by Adolph Strecker of San Francisco, who won the first prize in the man-target contest, scoring 97 points out of a possible 100. In team shooting he also made the highest score, which was 222 points in 10 shots. Mr. Strecker also scored in 73 shots, in 55 minutes, 250 points double. F. B. Schuster of California took the second prize in the man-target shoot at Milwaukee, scoring 94 points out of a possible 100. Each one of the Pacific coast delegation carried off a prize at the Western Schuetzenfest last week.

LOSSES BY FIRE.

St. Mary's, Ohio, June 26.—Gordon's flouring mill, a woolen mill, and the Post Office building burned; loss $75,000. Henry Baker died from overexertion in fighting the fire.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 26.—The Talbott stables at Latonia burned this morning. Three of Talbott's two-year-olds were burned; loss, $2,000.

Rochester, Penn., June 26.—The Keystone Pottery, owned by Miller Brothers, burned—loss, $50,000; insured, $30,000.

Wilkesbarre, Penn., June 26.—Twenty-one cottages on the Wyoming camp grounds burned this morning.

St. Hillare, Quebec, June 26.—The Iroquois House on Belosil Mountain burned; loss, $75,000.

STILL WORKING FOR BUCHANAN

His Attorneys Said to be Preparing for a New Move at the Last Moment—Mrs. Buchanan Makes Another Appeal.

ALBANY, June 26.—The friends of Dr. Buchanan, under sentence to be executed in Sing Sing Prison next week, are still fighting to save him.

Warden Sage of the prison, this morning called on Attorney General Hancock, and asked how he should proceed in the event of any legal proceedings being taken by Buchanan's counsel. He said that he had learned that a new move was to be made at the last moment to stay the execution. Mr. Hancock advised Mr. Sage to execute Buchanan. The law was plain, Mr. Hancock said. It would be a charity, he continued, to carry out the law's mandate, both to the man, whose hopes are kept up by over-zealous friends, and to his relatives. Mr. Sage secured no written opinion from the Attorney General.

A telegram was received at the Executive Chamber this afternoon by Private Secretary Cole from New-York, which read:

When could I see Governor in behalf of my husband. ANNIE BUCHANAN.

A second telegram, requesting an interview in Dr. Buchanan's case was received from Mrs. N. E. Coleman. Col. Cole did not answer either dispatch, but will confer with the Governor, who is at Ellerslie, by telephone, and will send the Governor's answer to-morrow.

The indications are that the Governor will firmly but respectfully decline to see either woman.

CHANGED THEIR MINDS AS TO SCHOOLS

The Brooklyn Board of Estimate Raises the Appropriation.

The members of the Brooklyn Board of Estimate who cut down the requisition for teachers' salaries Tuesday, thereby making necessary a cut in the salaries, learned yesterday that they had taken a step that was not popular, and hastened to redeem themselves.

Nelson J. Gates, a member of the Board of Education, appeared before the Board of Estimate and said he did not believe that the salaries of the teachers in the Girls' High School could be reduced without impairing the efficiency of the work.

"Before the salaries were raised, a year or so ago, we lost some of our best teachers because they were offered better positions in institutions in other cities," said Mr. Gates. "So we found it necessary to raise salaries, and we do not think they are excessively high.

"My own judgment is, if it is thought that Brooklyn cannot support higher education, why, we had better abandon the schools than impair the work by reducing salaries and employing a poorer grade of teachers."

The board decided to allow to the Board of Education $1,874,833, the amount asked for, less $45,000 for "anticipated" salaries. The total amount for all purposes asked for by the Board of Education was $2,805,744, and the Board of Estimate allowed $2,564,263.

The board also allowed $2,279,900 for the Police Department.

SUICIDE OF A BROKER

Louis M. Cornish of the Consolidated Exchange Shoots Himself.

Louis M. Cornish, a broker, thirty-five years old, residing at 26 West One Hundred and Twenty-first Street, committed suicide early yesterday morning with a revolver.

The cause of suicide was not explained. Cornish owned the house in which he resided. It is worth $30,000. His means were supposed to be ample, as he inherited a competence from his father, who died two years ago, leaving a fortune in Brooklyn real estate. Cornish had desk room in the office of the Yuma Improvement Company, of which his brother-in-law, Cole Saunders, is President, at 2 Wall Street. It was said there that he had not been at his desk since Friday, when he seemed in good health and spirits. It was thought possible that speculation may have worried him, as he is believed to have carried a great quantity of wheat at prices near the top.

Mr. Cornish had been a member of the Consolidated Exchange for ten years, a member of the Harlem Club, and a Free Mason. He carried insurance for $38,000. He left a wife and two children. He had two brothers and a sister.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Racine, Wis., June 26.—George H. Mosher, eighteen years, old, drank a quart of soapsuds, and followed it by consuming a half gallon of kerosene. Inflammation of the bowels set in, and he died in great agony. He said he took the stuff to cure an ailment.

Plainfield, N. J., June 26.—The census of this city is complete, and shows a total population of 13,629. At the last State census, in 1885, the population was 8,013.

Waterbury, Conn., June 26.—The Second Congregational Church, the largest and finest church of the denomination in New-England, was dedicated to-day.

Belfonte, Penn., June 26.—Ex-Gov. Beaver has received notice from the Governor of his appointment as a Superior Court Judge. He will accept.

Boston, June 26.—The American Bell Telephone Company has voted to increase its capital stock from $20,000,000 to $21,500,000.

RAILWAY CONGRESS OPENS

Praise of Its Practical Utility by the Prince of Wales.

INTEREST IN AMERICAN DELEGATES

Bryce Alludes to Electric Traction and Systems of the United States—Reception at Foreign Office.

LONDON, June 26.—The Prince of Wales shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon formally opened the International Railway Congress in the Imperial Institute, Kensington. There were present 800 delegates from all parts of the world.

The American delegates were grouped in a body near the front of the hall, with the Stars and Stripes floating over their heads. Near the American flag were an Italian banner and emblems from West Africa and Natal.

Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner in London, occupied a reserved seat near the front of the hall.

Before the Prince of Wales arrived all the delegates and other persons present, including a half dozen ladies, were photographed. When the Prince entered the hall at about 3:15 o'clock he was received with cheers, and all present rose to their feet. His Royal Highness acknowledged the greeting by bowing smilingly in all directions. He was attired in black coat and white hat, and wore a brilliant boutonnière.

In his address to the delegates, the Prince said:

"I discharge with pleasure the important duty of opening this congress on behalf of her gracious Majesty the Queen, who takes the greatest interest in the discussion of matters so closely affecting the welfare of her dominions, and I am glad on my own behalf of the opportunity to express my deep appreciation to the railway authorities, at home and abroad, of their unfailing courtesy and the facilities they have afforded me on many journeys."

His Royal Highness then, in a few well-chosen words, welcomed to England the delegates from the Continental States and from both Continents of America, and continued:

"It is now nearly sixty years since the opening of the first railway. We have fitly met to-day to show our interest in an industry which probably more than any other has enhanced the wealth, prosperity, and commerce of the world, and has tended to promote international friendship and universal good will.

"The last congress, which was held in St. Petersburg in 1892, was made memorable by the splendid hospitality and ardent encouragement given to the delegates and the objects they represented by the late lamented Emperor Alexander III. of Russia. We cannot promise you in England the beauties of Italy or the gayeties of Paris, but we can show you our great centres of industry, Manchester, Liverpool, Cardiff, Crewe, &c., where useful knowledge may be acquired and where you may see examples of our most beneficial work."

His Royal Highness said he would venture to say that even to his friends from the United States, a country owning nearly half of the railway mileage of the world, and also to the delegates from India and the British colonies, whose rapid and successful railway development deserved the utmost commendation.

He reviewed the programme of the congress, praising in the highest terms its practical utility, and concluded his remarks by expressing the hope that he would be able, through the proceedings and conclusions of the congress, to extend his scientific and technical knowledge, and also to establish the foundation of many pleasant and enduring friendships.

The Prince's address was loudly cheered.

Mr. Dubois, speaking on behalf of the Continental delegates, made a reply in French, expressing thanks for the heartiness of their welcome.

Mr. James Bryce, President of the Board of Trade, expressed to the Prince of Wales the thanks of the delegates for his Royal Highness's presence. Then, addressing himself to the delegates, he alluded to the changes in the Government which were just now taking place, and assured them that it mattered not what party was in power, every one would do his best to make the visit of the delegates pleasant and profitable.

Referring to the United States, Mr. Bryce said the delegates might learn a great deal therefrom in regard to electric traction, and they would be able also to obtain a vast amount of interesting data from the delegates controlling the great railway systems of that country, which were brought into frequent and sometimes delicate relations with the civil authorities whose districts these railways traversed, and whose prosperity thereby was materially increased.

The Prince of Wales will attend the reception which will be given to the delegates at the Foreign Office to-night by Mr. Bryce. All the American delegates will be present.

In the course of the sittings of the congress Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner, will read a paper on the development of railways in Canada, tracing their influence upon the country's economic progress, especially in the Provinces west of Lake Superior.

Among those present at the reception given to-night by Mr. Bryce in honor of the delegates were the Prince of Wales, the Shahzada, Nasr Ulla Khan, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, (the Duke of Edinburgh,) the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Fife, Lord Herschell, the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Rosebery, and Earl and Countess Spencer. The reception was very largely attended.

Prominent among the forty railway officials from the United States at the congress are the chiefs of the American Railway Association, H. S. Haines, President; Eben B. Thomas, Vice President, and William F. Allen, Secretary.

The Illinois Central sends James T. Harahan, Second Vice President; West Shore, Charles W. Bradley, General Superintendent; Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé, Jacob I. Frey, General Manager; Philadelphia and Reading, Theodore Voorhees, First Vice President; the Atlantic Coast Line, John R. Kenley, General Manager; Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Frank Thomson, Vice President; Theodore V. Ely, Chief of Motive Power, and James L. Taylor, General European Agent; New-York Central, H. W. Webb, Third Vice President; John M. Toucey, General Manager, and William Buchanan, Chief of Motive Power.

Chauncey M. Depew will appear at some of the sittings. The New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad sends C. P. Clark, President; F. S. Curtis, Chief Engineer; C. H. Platt, and E. G. Allen; the Lehigh Valley Railroad, R. H. Wilbur; the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, I. W. Thomas.

If the relative importance of the United States railroad interests be compared with the whole of the others represented in the congress, by estimate of mileage, they rank first, the delegates from the American Railway Association standing 144,215 miles of working railroad, against only 125,000 miles for the whole of the rest of the congress.

Treasurer Hale's Defalcations.

FOXCROFT, Me., June 26.—Interest is revived here in Treasurer Hale's defalcation, which attracted a great deal of notice three months ago by the report of the town's attorneys, Messrs. Parsons and Hudson, at a town meeting this afternoon. The attorneys, who have been, working three months, to-day made a complete statement of the amount of the defalcation and the town's financial transactions since 1887. The amount of notes in the attorneys' hands is $140,000. The ex-Treasurer's rascality dates from his entrance into office. The town not only lost by notes, but a number of thousand dollars were stolen outright from the Treasury. According to the Treasurer's books, the town is about $8,000 in debt. If the notes are good, the town is $140,000 in debt.

No Yachts Would Race Them.

LONDON, June 26.—The races of the Ramsey Regatta in Douglas Bay to-day, like the trials yesterday, were mere "sail-overs" for the Britannia and Niagara, owing to the absence of the competing yachts in their respective classes. The breeze was moderate from the southwest. The course sailed over was a triangular one.

A DAY'S WEDDINGS

Cramer—Howell.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 26.—The most brilliant matrimonial event of the year here was the marriage to-night of Miss Ida Erwin Howell to Mr. Robert Barringer Cramer of Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed in the First Methodist Church, which is the largest church in the city.

Miss Howell is the daughter of Col. Evan P. Howell of The Atlanta Constitution. She possesses rare beauty and has been a great belle in Southern society. Mr. Cramer, who is city editor of The Philadelphia

Mrs. Robert Barringer Cramer.

Times, comes from a well-known New-York family. Atlanta society was out in full force to witness the ceremony.

The wedding party was made up as follows: Ushers, Messrs. W. H. Black, H. P. Adams, Gordon Kaiser, and Rubin C. Hayden of Atlanta; maid of honor, Miss Rosalie Howell; best man, Mr. John V. R. Cramer of New-York; bridesmaids, the Misses Annie May Hall, Emily English, Rebecca Lowe, Adella Murphy, and Augusta Grady of Atlanta; groomsmen, Messrs. Ralph Bingham, Clarence Arnold, Samuel Scott Stinson, and Thomas Wharton of Philadelphia, and Charles Sumner Clark of Pittsburg.

The Rev. C. P. Williamson of the First Christian Church was officiating minister. The wedding was Colonial in its decorations, and the same idea was carried out in the quaint gowns of the ladies. The bride wore an elegant gown of ivory duchesse satin, the skirt plain, with long train, the bodice with a blouse effect in front, with a yoke of round point lace, a high collar and elbow sleeves. Her veil was held by orange blossoms, and she carried white orchids. The bridesmaids wore quaint white organdie gowns and carried pink orchids.

After the ceremony an elegant reception was tendered at the home of Col. Howell. There were present a number of prominent society people from other parts of the South as well as from Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Cramer left at midnight for Asheville, and after that will spend some time at the Eastern resorts. Mr. Cramer's party from Philadelphia, in addition to those who acted as attendants, included Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Young, Mr. T. H. Martin and Mrs. Martin, Mr. J. Clayton Erb; Miss Agnes Clark, Mr. George B. Brennan, Mr. Thomas J. Keenan of Pittsburg, and Mr. Samuel B. MacDonald.

Ronalds—Perry.

Miss Bertha Constance Perry, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Perry, was married to Pierre Lorillard Ronalds, Jr., yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Ridgelawn, Bay Ridge, L. I.

The ceremony took place under a roof made of maple boughs. The altar was trimmed with smilax and maidenhair ferns. Back of the altar was a bank of palms and ferns, and back of that was hung a rare piece of Gobelin tapestry. The inclosure in which the company stood was surrounded by strings of laurel. The Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee of Calvary Church, this city, officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with point lace and pearls. Her tulle veil was held in place by a diamond tiara, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mamie Field and Miss Juliana Cutting. They wore gowns of light green mousseline de soie, and black sashes. Their hats were of white lace, and they carried Dresden parasols, trimmed with pink roses. They received diamond and emerald pins from the bride.

The best man was Reginald Ronalds, and the ushers were James F. D. Lanier, Whitney Warren, H. Whitney McVickar, Elliot Gregory, J. Wadsworth Ritchie, F. L. Holbrook Betts, H. Pierrepont Perry, and Herbert D. Robins. The ushers wore diamond horseshoe scarf pins, gifts from the bridegroom.

Dinner was served under a large tent after the ceremony. Lander's Orchestra stationed on the lawn, played the wedding march, and afterward played for the dancing in the evening. The bride and bridegroom started, after the dinner, for Southampton, L. I., where they will spend the Summer.

King—Sherman.

The marriage of Miss Eliza Bucklin Sherman to Frederick A. King of Providence, R. I., took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Church of the Transfiguration, in East Twenty-ninth Street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Houghton and the Rev. Dr. Keller, a cousin of the bride.

The bridesmaids were Miss Loriana C. King, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss M. F. J. King, his cousin. They wore gowns of white mousseline de soie, and white hats, and carried bunches of red roses. The bride, who was given away by his father, Arthur W. Sherman, wore white satin and a tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of pea blossoms. The gift of the bridegroom to the bride was a diamond crescent pin, and to the ushers he gave diamond scarf pins.

The ushers were Frank R. Wheelwright and Charles Richmond of Providence, R. I.; Henry Cross and William Farquhar Payson, after the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's father, 124 West Eighty-second Street.

Among those present at the ceremony were Evan Sherman, Mrs. Charles G. King, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Ruth Schermerhorn King, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Owen, Arthur B. Turnure, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Payson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pulsefer, Alexander Gay, J. Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Baker, Mrs. Harry Earle, and Miss Mary Earle.

Mullins—Walsh.

NEWARK, N. J., June 26.—Miss Minnie C. Walsh, daughter of Michael Walsh, was married to Frank M. Mullins, at St. Patrick's Cathedral to-night. The Right Rev. Mgr. Doane, assisted by the Rev. Father Walsh, cousin of the bride, of Louisville, Ky

GRADUATES OF ST. JOHN'S

Commencement Exercises Held Under a Huge Tent.

THE HALF-CENTURY MARK REACHED

The arrangements for the commencement exercises at St. John's College, Fordham, yesterday were unique, and were greatly appreciated by those who attended them. The exercises took place under a huge tent on the shaded campus, and graduates and audience enjoyed the cool breezes that gently swept over their heads.

The class of '95 is the fiftieth that has graduated from St. John's College, and Archbishop Corrigan spoke of the graduation as a golden one.

Before the regular exercises the cadets gave a full-dress parade on the campus, under the command of their instructor, Lieut. Adams of the Fifth United States Artillery. The boys made an excellent showing, and the 1,500 spectators present accorded them much applause. Among those who watched the drill were Archbishop Corrigan, Mgr. Farley, ex-President Scully, Dean McNulty of Jersey City, Fathers McCloskey, Healey, Manney, McLaughlin, Keeley, and Dougherty, and Gen. Joseph O'Bierne. At the conclusion of the drill Adjt. L. Louis Tracey presented Instructor Adams with a pair of field glasses and a silver-mounted cane as tokens of the cadets' appreciation of his services.

In the big tent orations were delivered by Edward M. Lamb on "The Nature of College Education," and by John J. Dockry on "The Advantages of College Education." The college ode, "Alma Mater," was read by Edward M. Hayes. J. Harding Fisher, the valedictorian, received much applause for his farewell address.

The graduates, thirteen in number, received their degrees as Bachelors of Arts from the hand of Archbishop Corrigan. They were Terence J. Boyle, William M. Boyle, N. Trigant Burrow, John J. Dockry, Maurice E. Doran, James T. Fisher, J. Harding Fisher, Edward M. Hayes, Charles J. Edward M. Lamb, John J. O'Rourke, Charles A. J. Rice, and Louis L. Tracey.

After an address by the Rev. Dr. James S. M. Lynch of the class of '67 to the graduates, President Gannon distributed the medals and prizes as follows:

Hughes Medal for best examination in mental philosophy, J. Harding Fisher.

Medal for best biographical essay, presented this year by Dean McNulty, Edward M. Hayes.

Purse of $50 in gold for English literature, William M. Boyle Costin.

Medal for mathematics, Joseph A. Farrell.

Highest honors in class of philosophy, John J. O'Rourke.

Set of books for excellence in literature, Francis J. O'Neill.

Purse of $20 for excellence in Latin prosody, Leo J. O'Donovan.

Prize in Greek, Peter J. O'Meagher.

Silver medals for proficiency, Joseph A. Farrell, James A. Wilson, and John J. Byrne.

Silver medals for elocution, John G. McCarthy and John J. Byrne.

At the close of the exercises Archbishop Corrigan made a few remarks. He held that the signs of the times point to a better appreciation of a liberal education as a good preparation for the battle of life.

La Salle Academy's Commencement.

The La Salle Academy held its annual commencement yesterday afternoon in the Germania Theatre, Eighth Street, near Fourth Avenue. A large audience attended the exercises. Prizes were awarded as follows:

Gold medal for English, Joseph A. McCabe.

Gold medal for mathematics, William T. Relihan.

Gold medal for phonography, Otto A. Koenig.

Diplomas were awarded as follows:

John William Buck, Joseph Aloysius McCabe, William T. Relihan, Otto Adelbert Koenig, Joseph Francis Dolan, Thomas James Foley, and Thomas Francis McCarthy.

Among those present were Leonard A. Giegerich, United States Marshal John H. McCarthy, ex-Speaker Sulzer, ex-Police Commissioner Kerwin, H. W. Hoops, and William P. Mitchell.

Legal Notices.

AT A SPECIAL TERM OF THE NEW-YORK Supreme Court, held at Chambers thereof, County Court House, New-York City, this 21st day of June, 1895.—Present: Hon. Edward Patterson, Justice.—In the matter of the voluntary dissolution of the JOHNSON EXTRACT WOOL COMPANY, a corporation.

Upon all the proceedings heretofore had herein and the papers filed in this action, and on the annexed petition of David J. Lees, receiver herein, verified June 19th, 1895, and proof of due service on the Attorney General of the State of New-York, and on Smith & Bowman, Esqs., attorneys for the petitioners, of the application for this order and of the papers upon which the same is based, and a copy of this order, in the form in which it is to be entered,

Now, on motion of Franklin Bien, Esq., attorney for the said receiver, it is Ordered that all creditors of the corporation, to wit, Johnson Extract Wool Company, be and they are hereby required to exhibit and prove their claims to the receiver, at his office, Room 16, 320 Broadway, in the City of New-York, within six months of the first publication of notice of this order, and that all creditors who make default in so doing shall be precluded from all the benefits and from any distribution which may be made by the receiver herein.

It is further ordered that the said receiver be and he hereby is authorized and empowered to give notice of this order by publication in The New-York Law Journal and in The New-York Times, two newspapers published in the City of New-York, once a week for six successive weeks, and that all creditors exhibit and prove their claims to him at such place as shall be designated in said notice to be published as hereinbefore directed, and that all claims be proved by the presentation of vouchers, accompanied by the affidavit of the party or one of the parties interested, or the agent of said party or parties having knowledge of the facts, that the whole amount of the debt shown in said voucher is justly due from the Johnson Extract Wool Company to the creditor named in the voucher, over and above all off-sets and counterclaims, with liberty to said receiver to contest any of the claims so proved as he may be advised, and that the said receiver apply to the court for instructions in regard to any claims that may be contested.

Signed Enter E. P., J. S. C.

Notice to the creditors of the Johnson Extract Wool Company:

Notice is hereby given that the foregoing is a copy of an order duly entered in the above entitled proceeding, and that all creditors of the Johnson Extract Wool Company are required to exhibit and prove their claims to the undersigned, at his office, Room 16, No. 320 Broadway, in the City of New-York, and comply with the direction of the above order, within six months from the 27th day of June, 1895.—New-York, June 26th, 1895.

SUPREME COURT.

In the matter of the application of the Board of Education, by the Counsel to the Corporation of the City of New-York, relative to acquiring title, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New-York, to certain lands on the northerly side of EAST ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-THIRD STREET, between Third Avenue and Crotona Park, in the Twenty-fourth Ward of said city, duly selected and approved by said board as a site for school purposes, under and in pursuance of the provisions of Chapter 191 of the Laws of 1888, as amended by Chapter 35 of the Laws of 1890. PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 191 of the Laws of 1888, as amended by Chapter 35 of the Laws of 1890, notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Supreme Court of the State of New-York, at a Special Term of said court, to be held at Chambers thereof, at the County Court House, in the City of New-York, on the 10th day of July, 1895, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard thereon, for the appointment of Commissioners of Estimate in the above-entitled matter.

The nature and extent of the improvement hereby intended is the acquisition of title, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New-York, to certain lands and premises with the buildings thereon and the appurtenances thereto belonging, on the northerly side of East One Hundred and Seventy-third Street, between Third Avenue and Crotona Park, in the Twenty-fourth Ward of said city, in fee simple absolute, the same to be conveyed, appropriated, and used to and for the purposes specified in said Chapter 191 of the Laws of 1888, as amended by said Chapter 35 of the Laws of 1890, said property having been duly selected and approved by the Board of Education as a site for school purposes, under and in pursuance of the provisions of said Chapter 191 of the Laws of 1888, as amended by said Chapter 35 of the Laws of 1890, being the following-described plot, piece, or parcel of land, namely:

All that certain plot, piece, or parcel of land situate, lying, and being in the Twenty-fourth Ward of the City of New-York, and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the northerly side of East One Hundred and Seventy-third Street, distant 119.37 feet easterly from the corner formed by the intersection of the northerly side of East One Hundred and Seventy-third Street, with the easterly side of Third Avenue; and running thence easterly along said northerly side of One Hundred and Seventy-third Street 79.26 feet, to the westerly side of Fulton Avenue, (proposed); thence northerly along said westerly side of Fulton Avenue (proposed) 248.85 feet; thence westerly at right angles, or nearly so, to said Fulton Avenue (proposed) 79.77 feet, to the easterly side of the present site of Grammar School No. 63; thence southerly and along said easterly side of the present site of Grammar School No. 63, 31.30 feet, and thence again southerly and still along said easterly side of the present site of Grammar School No. 63, 218.70 feet, to the northerly side of East One Hundred and Seventy-third Street, at the point or place of beginning.

Dated New-York, June 14th, 1895.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The local stock market continues strong for the elevated stocks and weak for the cables. Lake Street Elevated sold above 21 to-day, and Alley "L" went to 13⅝. The bull movement in the latter stock is based on the improved prospects for the down-town loop project. Franchises for two sides of the loop have been granted, a third is within reach, and it is said that considerable progress has lately been made in the work of securing frontage consents on Wabash Avenue. The interest on the extension bonds of the Alley road, due July 1, and amounting to $75,000, will be defaulted and the money applied on Oct. 1 to the payment of the defaulted coupons on the first mortgage bonds. In this way foreclosure proceedings can be averted for another six months at least. Lake Street Elevated conditions are unchanged. There is still considerable long stock coming on the market, but the buying is better than the selling, and quotations move slowly upward. Both North and West Chicago Street Railroad touched slightly lower levels today. The market for the stocks is almost entirely without support, and it is an easy matter for room traders to depress quotations. Aside from these stocks, the market was extremely dull.

At the local banks business is reported to be quiet. Rates for money, however, show no change, being 4@5 per cent. for call and 5@6 per cent. for time loans. Clearings to-day were $14,141,586. New-York exchange sold at 70c premium.

WAS LURED FROM EUROPE

Max Glueckman, Charged with Arson, a Prisoner.

WITH HIM IS ADOLPH HIRSCHKOPF

Their Testimony, It Is Believed, Will Lead to the Conviction of Many Alleged Incendiaries.

The conviction of all the arson conspirators and their allies who are in custody and those who may be arrested appears to be assured by the coming of Adolph Hirschkopf and Max Glueckman into the control of Acting District Attorney Vernon M. Davis.

These men were passengers on the Red Star steamer Rhynland yesterday from Antwerp, under the names of Hart and Percher, and there is little doubt that Mr. Davis employed Hirschkopf to lure his fellow passenger back to this country. Hirschkopf some time ago turned informer, and he is looked upon as a witness for the people. Glueckman is said to have been known in the arson combination as the "toucher off," being employed, after preparations were made to defraud the insurance companies, to set fire to buildings. In such a capacity he was directly responsible, it is charged, for the incendiarism in Louis Gordon's shirt manufactory at 21 Walker Street, nearly a year ago.

Acting District Attorney Davis knew that Hirschkopf and Glueckman were passengers on the Rhynland, and he arranged so that it was impossible for them to elude detention on the arrival of the vessel at this port. The Custom House authorities were notified to look out for "Hart" and "Percher," of whom full descriptions were given, as diamond smugglers, and Detective Sergeants Reilly and Von Gerichten were detailed to watch the vessel's passengers at the Barge Office and arrest the men.

The detectives had little trouble in finding and securing their prisoners, as the Custom House officers had already picked them out from among the passengers and searched them. Nothing that was contraband was found in their possession. They were surrendered to the detectives, who took them to Police Headquarters, and after Acting Chief Detective McClusky had taken their records, they were sent to the District Attorney's office.

Hirschkopf said he was a broker and thirty-three years old, and Glueckman said he was a shoemaker and twenty-eight years old. They had only a small amount of money, their joint capital and their wardrobes being carried in satchels.

At the Criminal Court Building the prisoners were kept in the detectives' room until Mr. Davis called for Hirschkopf and sent him to the House of Dtention.

Glueckman was arraigned before Judge Fitzgerald in Part I. of the Court of General Sessions, on a bench warrant issued by Recorder Goff last March, when the same official signed a warrant for Hirschkopf.

The charge against Glueckman was arson in the third degree in setting fire to the Gordon place. The prisoner said he had no money and no counsel, and Judge Fitzgerald, in committing him to the Tombs, said he would assign a lawyer to look after his interests. Bail was not talked of.

Until Mr. Davis tells the story of his action in the matter, and he would not talk on the subject yesterday, the public must accept an unofficial version of the disappearance of Hirschkopf and Glueckman. Hirschkopf had made an important confession, which was substantiated by the informer Milch, who betrayed Glueckman as the "toucher-off" of the combination, and was sure of immunity when he disappeared. And Hirschkopf's disappearance indicated that he had been made away with by "the gang" for "peaching."

Glueckman also had disappeared, but the story about him was probably true. It was that he had learned of the peril he was in, and included Milch, who had the warrant for his arrest by only a few hours. When Mr. Davis cares to tell the story, he will no doubt say that he and Fire Marshal Mitchel arranged that Hirschkopf should gain Glueckman's entire confidence and then induce him to accompany him on returning to America together.

There are many reasons for supposing that Hirschkopf was constantly in communication with Mr. Davis or the Fire Marshal as that he informed them that he and Glueckman would sail on the Rhynland. It is said that Hirschkopf's scheme to lure Glueckman back to this country was a plot to burn a house for insurance money, the reward to the incendiaries to be a liberal one. A confederate, in the pay of the New-York authorities, it is said, posed as the merchant who wanted the burning done, and was a fellow-passenger on the steamer with Hirschtopf and Glueckman.

Hirschkopf must at present be considered safe as a witness for the people. If a rumor at the District Attorney's office yesterday is true, Glueckman envies him, and is willing to tell all he knows on the same conditions. Mr. Davis would not deny that Glueckman is willing to be an informer, but he said that it was his intention to convict and punish the prisoners. Of Hirschkopf's future and his importance as a witness in cases that have not yet been made public, Mr. Davis would not talk.

Koppel Friedland, who was arrested at 7 West One Hundred and Eighteenth Street on Saturday and indicted for arson on Monday, was arraigned to plead before Judge Fitzgerald yesterday. He was tearful at the bar, and his lawyer asked to have the amount of his bail, $10,000, reduced. Judge Fitzgerald, on learning that Judge Allison decided on this amount, denied the application, and Friedland was taken back to the Tombs.

Morris Weiner was indicted yesterday by the General Sessions Grand Jury for perjury before Justice Ryan in the case of Morris Schoenholz, the insurance broker, now in jail. The perjury was committed, it is said, when Schoenholz was first arrested, and, owing to Weiner's testimony, was discharged, only to be rearrested.

At the meetings of the Fire Commissioners yesterday no action was taken in regard to Fire Marshal Mitchel or his bureau. Both were discussed at the morning and evening sessions, and it was announced that nothing will be done until the Commissioners shall have had a conference with the special committee of five from the New-York Board of Fire Underwriters. The date for this conference has not been decided on.

Although no action has been taken, plans in regard to the Marshal's bureau have been fully canvassed and the Commissioners are almost ready to act. They feel that it is necessary, however, to leave everything in abeyance until the views of the underwriters are given, and after that much will depend on Mr. Mitchel's disposition of what may be regarded as charges against him, namely, his retention of Franke and Lenz, his treatment of the west side fires, and his attitude toward the Police Department. There was a rumor yesterday that the Commissioners might call on Mr. Mitchel to explain his career in connection with evidence adduced by the Senate committee of which J. Sloat Fassett was Chairman.

FIREMAN GALLIGAN DISMISSED.

Commissioners Not Well Disposed Toward Secret Organizations.

The Fire Commissioners yesterday disposed of the case of Fireman John F. Galligan of Engine Company, No. 12, which has been under consideration for a couple of weeks.

As related in The New-York Times, Foreman John H. White, the Stephenson Medallist for 1894, charged Galligan with outrageously insubordinate conduct on June 8. Part of the specifications declares that Galligan called to his comrades "to look at the Captain; he is drunk."

Galligan retaliated by insisting that his commander went in uniform to a Pearl Street saloon on June 3 and drank freely on two occasions, being once with Foreman Burns of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1.

Galligan and several firemen supported the charge against Foreman White, but the testimony in favor of White and Foreman Burns, and in support of the charge of insubordination, was overwhelming. In the course of the trial, however, the rivalry between the Officers' Association and the Firemen's Association—the one being a close corporation of superiors and the other a secret organization of the privates—was made clear, and President La Grange established by his questions that the intent of the board was to do away with any secret or political organization in the department.

At the close of the trial, Commissioner Sheffield, expressing the sentiments of his colleagues, made this ringing announcement:

Any fireman in this department who desires to come before this board and tell the truth, no matter who is affected by his story, whether it be a Chief, a Captain, or a Lieutenant, or a brother fireman, will be absolutely protected in whatever he may say, if he tells the truth. As the President of the board has well said: "Officers and men are on an exact and equal footing in this trial room." Neither firemen nor officers need fear the effect of any story they may have to tell, provided it is true.

But the board will visit with the severest sort of condemnation anything like a conspiracy on the part of officers to "pound" or ruin firemen, or a conspiracy on the part of firemen to bring charges against their officers. Both things are absolutely outrageous, and this board can be depended on to punish with the severest penalties any man or set of men found guilty of doing those things.

And the board also trusts that the feeling that seems to have arisen between the organization of the officers and the organization of the men may cease. If it does not cease it will be the duty of the board to take cognizance of these organizations, and, if necessary, abolish them. We do not want secret organizations to imperil the good order of this department, and it makes no difference whether it be an organization of officers or an organization of men.

After a session of the board, these decisions were announced: Fireman Galligan, guilty, and dismissed from the department; allegations against Foreman White without foundation. Galligan was appointed April 22, 1894.

WILL REPAIR THE CAPITAL

American Insurance Company Will Restore the Surplus of $200,000 and Continue Business.

Assurances were given yesterday by the management of the American Insurance Company that the impairment of capital reported by the State Insurance Department would be corrected, that the surplus of $200,000 would be restored, and that the company would continue its business financially well equipped.

In conformity with this intention, the company issued the following statement yesterday:

Mr. David Adee, for many years President of the American Fire Insurance Company, having retired in April, 1895, on account of ill health, Mr. Frederick W. Downer was chosen President pro tem. He demanded an investigation into the affairs of the company, being already aware of irregularities.

An expert was engaged, and it was deemed best to call upon the Insurance Department. The result of these two examinations nearly coincided, showing an impairment of about 18 per cent.

All outstanding risks, with two exceptions, were reinsured in the Phenix Insurance Company of Brooklyn anterior to May 16, and $600,000 premium paid therefor, so the American is relieved of these liabilities, besides being benefited by the substantial amount received as a bonus for the business. Some agencies and certain classes of risks have been discontinued, and the company is in good shape for continuing a successful business.

Since May 16, up to which time reinsurance was made in the Phenix, $75,000 of premiums have been written and only $1,600 loss incurred. The company now has $325,000 of unimpaired capital, and its assets are represented by cash and good securities, and when the requirement of the Superintendent of Insurance for the return of $60,000 unauthorized dividends is complied with, it will nearly, if not quite, restore the full capital to $400,000. There are no liabilities except what can be met by the uncollected premiums.

It is intended immediately to restore the capital to $400,000 and increase the surplus to $200,000, and to place an experienced underwriter in the presidency, but the requirement of the Superintendent may cause some delay in perfecting and arranging plans under the new conditions.

Superintendent Pierce of the Insurance Department said he saw no reason why the company might not go on. It would be a calamity to the insurance business if it were to discontinue. The trouble had come from leaving the management to subordinates. This was easily to be corrected.

President Downer felt confident that the company would be put in good shape again at to-morrow's meeting of the Directors.

Prizes at Mount St. Ursula Academy.

The fourth annual commencement of Mount St. Ursula Academy, Bedford Park, took place yesterday, Archbishop Corrigan presiding at the exercises and distributing the prizes.

The salutatorian was Miss A. Kiernan, and the valedictorian Lulu Flanagan. A feature of the day was the rendering of an oratorio entitled "Esther, the Beautiful Queen."

Prizes were awarded to Leonore Villegas, Lulu Flanagan, and Annie Kiernan.

Mrs. Gorley Killed Herself at Sea.

Mrs. Isabella Gorley, a second-cabin passenger on the Aurania, which arrived yesterday from Liverpool, committed suicide by jumping overboard from that vessel. The woman was coming to America to join her husband and was accompanied by her three-year-old daughter. The Aurania had just cleared the Mersey when the woman was seen to jump from the port railing into the sea. Upon arrival at Queenstown the child was turned over to the authorities at that port.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

DECIDES FOR THE FATHER

Referee Hall Says that Mrs. Nare's Accusations Were Unfounded.

MR. PLUMB'S ACCOUNTS WERE RIGHT

Instead of Owing His Daughter Money, a Balance Is Due Him—Big Costs of a Seven-Year Suit.

James Neale Plumb seems to have had a particularly bitter experience of filial ingratitude, according to a report filed yesterday in the Surrogate's office by ex-Judge Ernest Hall, as referee. For seven years Mr. Plumb has been contending before Judge Hall against accusations made by his daughter, Mrs. Ramsey Nares, who charged him with having squandered $60,000 belonging to her as part of her mother's estate. After taking over 900,000 words of testimony, at a cost of $10,000, Judge Hall finds that these charges are utterly without foundation. In his report, the referee pays the father this high tribute:

He has supplied the place of both parents. His intersourse with his children was most affectionate, and partook more of the refined nature of a woman than the harsher nature of a man. Nothing which ingenuity could suggest or money purchase was neglected, and, in fact, he watched over them and entertained and cared for them in a way to commend itself as an example to others left in similar circumstances.

He never allowed his daughters to meet any man or woman except of unblemished reputation, and never associated with questionable persons himself. In fact, he led the life of a gentleman feeling the weight of responsibility cast upon him to bring up and educate his children in a manner to do justice to their antecedents and expectations, and gave himself up singly to that task.

Of Mrs. Nares, who is the wife of an Englishman and lives in Surrey, and her sister, Miss Sarah Lenita Plumb, who testified against her father before the referee, Judge Hall says:

The correspondence that has been put in evidence shows conclusively that these daughters held their father's love as their dearest possession. They could not bear to be separated from him even for short periods of time. Their continued and urgent desire, expressed to him in letters, was his return to them and their home, which they considered empty without him. In short, it would be almost impossible to conceive a stronger or more deep-seated love and devotion than is displayed by this petitioner in her letters to her father.

If their testimony is to be believed, this seeming love and devotion was a hollow sham and a mockery, and that they were only lavishing parentally lavishing all their affection and filial endearments upon their father, they had no love and respect for him, and believed he was not treating them as he should, and was unkind and unjust to them.

But it is quite beyond human belief that the testimony of these daughters regarding their relations with their father can be true in any respect; no young lady brought up as these were, could, by any conceivable possibility, have carried on for years in personal intercourse and correspondence a deceit so base and ignoble, and I am forced to the conclusion that their evidence is colored in an attempt to justify to themselves their wholly unwarranted course of conduct to their father.

The bitterness of the struggle between father and daughter is shown by the fact that Mrs. Nares attacked one item in the accounting amounting to $2.50, in the clearing up of which testimony was taken that involved an expenditure of over $200.

Mr. Plumb alleges that his daughter's feelings were turned against him by her husband, who, he declares, gained a peculiar ascendancy over her almost from the day she met him, in Southampton, England, where Mr. Plumb and his daughter were staying at the time in Dunbrook House.

Mr. Plumb was left a widower in 1877. His wife, the daughter of Abram Ives, of this city, died in Paris, leaving him with three children, the two daughters and a son, James Ives Plumb. From her father, Mrs. Plumb inherited the income of $900,000. On her death, under the terms of the will of Abram Ives, her son, James Ives Plumb, came in for the income from $200,000, and real estate which yielded $15,000 yearly additional. He was then fifteen years of age, the contestant, then Marie Jeannette Plumb, came in for the income from a similar amount, and for $67,000 absolutely, and the youngest child, Sarah Lenita, who was not born when Mr. Ives died, was given $118,000 absolutely, Plumb having been saved for her by her mother.

The father was appointed guardian for the infant children, and all the income from the combined estates of the children was placed in his charge, to expend, so as to keep them in the manner that they had been used to living.

Prior to the death of Mrs. Plumb, the referee says, Mr. Plumb was a man of large wealth, and the family lived in New-York in great luxury and expended from $40,000 to $60,000 a year. But at the time of the death of his wife Mr. Plumb met with losses that made it impossible to support the family out of his own income.

When the son and younger daughter came of age they accepted their father's according without protest. But Miss Plumb left her father when her elder sister got married, and did everything she could to help her in the case. Mrs. Nares reached her majority in 1888. She was married to Mr. Nares the night she came of age, notwithstanding her father's objections. The contest, now probably ended, was begun soon after. The accounts submitted by the father extended over eleven years. Testimony was taken on both sides of the water. The referee's report covers eighty-five typewritten pages. He finds that all costs of the accounting, of which $10,000 is considered a very moderate estimate, should be borne by Mrs. Nares, and that, instead of being indebted to his daughter, Mr. Plumb is entitled to a balance of $6,000 in his favor.

Henry Thompson of Vanderpool, Green & Cumming appeared for Mr. Plumb, and David McClure and George E. Austin acted for Mrs. Nares.

Exercises at St. Agnes's School.

The closing exercises of the second year of St. Agnes's parochial school were held last night in the chapel in Forty-third Street, near Third Avenue.

The school has 630 children, and a number of children from each of the classes took part in the exercises, which consisted of recitations and instrumental and vocal music.

The children were addressed by Miss Mary McKernon and the Rev. Dr. H. A. Brann.

Will Examine the Custom House.

McKim, Mead & White are the architects who have undertaken to examine the foundations and walls of the Custom House, to determine what new superstructure they will stand. The examination will begin today.

Secretary Carlisle will endeavor to induce Congress to compensate the architects, whether or not the building may be enlarged to meet present business demands.

Meeting of New City Magistrates.

The new Board of City Magistrates held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the office of E. H. Hinsdale, 192 Broadway. The full board was present, and also Clerk McDonald, who will act in the same capacity to the new Magistrates as Clerk James McCabe did to the outgoing Police Justices.

The board designated an assistant clerk, five subpoena servers, and a messenger, who will be appointed as soon as the new board comes into power July 1.

The board considered some changes which have been suggested in the forms of court papers and the methods of court procedure. These changes will not be made public at present.

STARTS ON HER SECOND TRIP

St. Louis Departs on Schedule Time—Has a Large Number of Distinguished Passengers.

The American Liner, St. Louis, swung out from her pier yesterday forenoon and started on her second trip to Southampton. A large crowd gathered on the pier to witness her departure, and to say farewell to friends.

The vessel carried out 375 saloon passengers, 170 second-cabin passengers, and 250 steerage passengers.

When asked if the St. Louis was likely to reduce any established speed records on this trip, Capt. Randle smiled and said that he did not think any records would go. He added that it was not his intention to press the ship, and that there would be none until the engines were limbered up by many more voyages.

"Wait until the stiffness, which is inherent to new machinery, is worn off, and then we will see just what the St. Louis can do," was his parting admonition.

The vessel has on board an unusually large number of well-known people. Charles A. Dana of The New-York Sun decided at the last moment that he would go on his annual trip abroad by the St. Louis, and was one of the last to secure a stateroom. He expects to be absent about two months. He is accompanied by Mrs. Dana.

Among his fellow-passengers are Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, Congressman James J. Belden, A. J. Cassatt, Paul du Chaillu, Judge Henry Dugro, Charles P. Daly, Prof. H. E. Northrup, James R. Roosevelt, Jr., Sir Donald A. Smith, Senator James Smith, Jr., and Prof. William L. Whitney.

Two tugs, carrying friends of Senator James Smith and E. B. Gaddis, accompanied the St. Louis down the bay.

THEATRICAL GOSSIP.

—Koster & Bial's Roof Garden.—Koster & Bial's Roof Garden has become one of the most popular open-air resorts in the city. New features of the bill next week will be Marietta and Belloni, with their flock of trained cockatoos; Charlsie Agnew, eccentric dancer, and M. Ganivet, in some new character impersonations. The rest of the programme will include the Egger-Reiser troupe of Tyrolean singers and dancers; Hajime Kokin, a Japanese juggler; Conroy & Fox, Irish comedians; the three Merrillees Sisters, in songs and dances; J. W. Ransome, "the ruler of New-York;" and Dr. Summer's Hungarian Gypsy Orchestra. On cold or rainy evenings during the Summer months, the performance will be given in the Music Hall.

—To Sell the Contents.—The entire contents of Huber & Gebhard's Casino, better known as Kipp's Casino, 10 and 12 Nelson Street, Brooklyn, are to be sold at public auction to-morrow, thus winding up the career of a popular family resort. Mr. Huber said yesterday that the property had been sold by the Kipp estate about a week ago to unknown parties for $114,000. Some time ago he and his partner made an application for a renewal of the lease, and expected it would be granted, but since he said he has been unable to find the new owner, and so decided to wind up the business by selling all the property in the Casino to the highest bidder.

—The New "Thrilby."—The third edition of "Thrilby" at the Garrick Theatre presents the burlesque in an entirely new form. The addition of Mark Murphy, Willis P. Sweatnam, Joseph Cawthorne, and Miss Murray to the cast adds materially to the fun-making. Mr. Herbert is now playing the Scottsman, and gives a humorous impersonation of that character. The new edition is recostumed, the chorus is augmented, and "Thrilby" in its present condition is a most entertaining performance.

Broadway Theatre.—But four more performances of "Dandy Dick Whittington" will be given at the Broadway Theatre, Camille D'Arville closing her engagement there on Saturday night. She will then take her first rest for over a year. The opera is one of the prettiest that has been seen in New-York for a long time, and has been so successful that Miss D'Arville's engagement has already been extended for two weeks. Her next season will begin in Boston during August.

—New Stars for Proctor's.—William H. Fox, the comedian-pianist, in his whimsical absurdity, "Padewhiskie," will be at Proctor's next week, with Eldora and Norine, equilibrists and juggiers; the Fenton brothers, the Claflin sisters, the Quixey Four, Weathers, Warren Trio, Henrietta Rosch, electric dancer, and many other new comers. The Fourth of July performance will begin an hour earlier than usual, and will introduce special holiday features.

—Mr. Sothern's New Play.—Edward H. Sothern will play three distinct characters in "The Prisoner of Zenda," the new play which he is to present at the Lyceum in August. It is a dramatization of Anthony Hope's novel, which Edward Rose has made for him. Manager Daniel Frohman thinks the three parts of Prince Rudolph of Puritania, an Englishman, and a king, will suit Mr. Sothern better than anything he has lately undertaken.

—"The Twentieth Century Girl."—Frederick Hallen has engaged Gus Williams for his production of "The Twentieth Century Girl" next season. He had previously engaged John T. Kelly for the same organization, so that the two stars who formerly traveled together will once again be seen in the same company. Mollie Fuller will play the title role, in which she made a decided success last season.

—"The Sphinx's" Herald Here.—Paul West the advance herald of "The Sphinx," the new comic opera to be produced at the Casino July 8, arrived here yesterday, and has installed himself at the Casino. He is the advance man of the show, and will attend to the press work for Manager Askin, who will be here himself when the opera is presented.

—Mena Cleary to Sing Abroad.—Mena Cleary, who returned from Paris to accept an engagement with the Bostonians two years ago, has arranged with a well-known London manager to sail for England next week. She is to become a leading member of a comic opera company which will sail for South Africa and India early in August.

—Miss Englaender Nearly Well.—Miss Carla Englaender of the Conried-Ferency Opera Company, singing at Terrace Garden, who has been seriously ill for ten days past, has nearly recovered and will be well enough to essay the leading role in "Der Vogelhaendler," ("The Tyrolean,") Zeller's best work, on Monday night.

—Margaret Frazer.—Margaret Frazer, the dancer of "A Gaiety Girl," is now dancing every night at the Madison Square Roof Garden. This is her final engagement in this country, as she is to sail for Europe next week. She is a great favorite at the roof garden, where she is giving some very beautiful and graceful dances.

—"A Trip to Chinatown."—Burt Haverly has secured the next season's rights to Charles H. Hoyt's most successful play, "A Trip to Chinatown." He and his wife, Laura Biggar, will star in the farce, he playing Welland Strong, and she the Widow.

IN M'LAUGHLIN'S BEHALF

THE MOTION HEARD BY JUDGE GAYNOR

A Certificate of Reasonable Doubt Is Desired—The Court Expected to Announce Its Decision Monday.

NEWBURG, N. Y., June 26.—Judge Gaynor occupied the bench at the Court House to-day, for the purpose of hearing an application for a certificate of reasonable doubt in the case of Police Inspector McLaughlin of New-York, convicted of the crime of extortion, and sentenced to two and a half years' imprisonment at Sing Sing.

McLaughlin's interests were represented by Col. James, Gen. Horatio C. King, Abram T. Elkus, W. W. Wilson, and Edward McCall. From the District Attorney's office were Judge Rollins, Bartow S. Weeks, and George Perkins. Col. James began the argument, saying:

We are here in the action of the people against William W. McLaughlin, Inspector of Police, to apply for a certificate of reasonable doubt as to whether the judgment of conviction will stand. The indictment against Inspector McLaughlin was found March 18, 1895. It contained five counts, four of which charged him with the crime of bribery. The fifth charged him with the crime of extortion. The fact or facts upon which the five counts were credited constituted a single transaction, alleged to have occurred Nov. 21, 1891. The accuser before the Grand Jury was Francis W. Seagrist, Jr., dealer in second-hand building materials, a part of whose occupation was taking down or demolishing buildings in New-York. It was charged in four counts of the indictment that Seagrist paid $50 for McLaughlin as a bribe to omit or forego the performance of his official duty in enforcing laws and ordinances affecting Seagrist and his men in doing the work of taking down buildings. It was charged in the fifth count of the indictment that McLaughlin extorted money from Seagrist by wrongful use of fear induced by threats to do unlawful injury to the property by interfering with the job. To that indictment the defendant pleaded not guilty, and April 9 last was set for his trial. The trial was to occur in the Court of Oyer and Terminer before Justice Barnard. From April 15 until May 9 the court was occupied every day from 10 o'clock in the morning to 5 o'clock in the evening trying to obtain a jury. Some three weeks and four days were occupied in procuring a jury for that trial. In that procedure something over 1,500 talesmen were summoned and 500 or 600 examined. Some numbers of them were rejected. The trial before this jury occupied but two days, and resulted in a disagreement, being ten for conviction and two for acquittal. The proceedings which preceded the discharge of that jury were perhaps the most extraordinary that ever took place before the Court of Oyer and Terminer. The jurors in the minority accused those in the majority of threatening them with State prison if they did not agree with the majority in conviction.

Col. James gave a detailed history of the proceedings in court leading to the second trial, telling how motions were made for a removal of the place of trial and for a stay. He

COMMENCEMENT AT YALE

A Grand Procession on the Old University Campus.

THE EXERCISES IN BATTELL CHAPEL

Degrees and Prizes Awarded to the Graduates and Many Honorary Degrees Specially Conferred.

NEW-HAVEN, June 26.—Five hundred and seventy-five Yale seniors received their diplomas at the final commencement exercises of the university, which to-day completes its one hundred and ninety-fifth year.

The graduating exercises were this year of marked interest, because of the changes announced last Winter, and since widely commented upon. There was no valedictorian, no salutatorian, and no speaking for the Townsend Prizes.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning the seniors of all departments assembled on the campus and, headed by Prof. John C. Schwab as Marshal, and a brass band, marched through the green back to Battell Chapel, where the commencement exercises took place, instead of in the centre of the church, as heretofore. Behind the band came the academic, then the scientific, next the medical and law seniors, and behind them were the Yale corporation and Faculty, and the alumni who are back for reunions. The procession was over half a mile long, and was of an imposing nature, the mortarboard caps and togas of the seniors giving it an artistic as well as a classic aspect.

The exercises in Battell Chapel began at about 11 o'clock with music by the Symphony Orchestra, led by Prof. Parker, head of the department of music. Prayer was offered and the Sixty-fifth Psalm was sung, as at the opening of the first college erected in New-Haven in 1718, and at the inauguration of the first President, Dwight. An address by President Dwight and the announcement of prizes and Fellowships followed.

The ode written by Edmund Clarence Stedman of New-York City was then sung by a special chorus of eighty voices, with accompaniment by the Symphony Orchestra. The Deans of the various Faculties of the university then presented to the President and Fellows candidates for degrees. The following degrees were announced:

THE PHI BETA KAPPA OF TRINITY

Semi-Centennial Celebration of the Beta of Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Conn., June 26.—The feature in Trinity commencement to-day was the semi-centennial celebration of the Beta of Connecticut of the Phi Beta Kappa. It attracted a large number of Beta Kappa men from all over this section of the country.

At the morning session these officers were elected: President—The Rev. Thomas Russell Pynchon, D. D., LL. D., '41; Vice President—The Rev. John T. Huntington, M. A., '50; Secretary—The Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., '86; Treasurer—George Lewis Cooke, M. A., LL. B., '70. The officers were authorized to nominate three delegates to attend the National Convention at Saratoga in October. A committee was appointed to report next year a list of names of alumni who have distinguished themselves, to be elected honorary members. The following members of the class of '96 were initiated members of the local Beta: Robert William Curtis, George Nahum Holcombe, George Blodgett Gilbert, Charles Hubbell Street, Samuel Ferguson, Frederick McDonald Goddard, James Walter Gunning, Alexander John Williams.

The commemoration exercises were held at noon, when an address on "Democracy and Learning" was made by the Rev. Dr. Edwin Harwood, pastor emeritus of Trinity Church, New-Haven, and a poem, "In Time of Confusion," was read by Henry Marvin Belden, '88.

THE LAST DAY AT AMHERST.

Sixty-one Graduates Declared Bachelors of Arts.

AMHERST, Mass., June 26.—The graduation exercises of the seventy-fourth commencement of Amherst College were held this forenoon in College Hall. At the close of the speaking, the degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon sixty-one graduates, and that of Bachelor of Science upon sixteen.

A resolution was adopted to-day by the alumni that in the judgment of the General Alumni Association of Amherst College the publication of an annual statement of the financial condition, revenues, expenses, assets, liabilities, and investments of the college, similar in its general features to those of any other institution of co-ordinate grade and character, is desirable. The following officers were elected: President—Bishop F. D. Huntington, '39; Vice Presidents—F. H. Marsh, '45; H. L. Bridgman, '60; the Rev. F. D. Greene, '85; N. C. Rogers, '80; Prof. John M. Tyler, '75; Secretary—Prof. William L. Cowles, '78; Executive Committee—W. E. Dickenson, '50; Dr. E. Hitchcock, '49; the Rev. George E. Fisher, '46; the Rev. R. M. Woods, '80; the Rev. R. C. Smith, '82; Prof. W. C. Estey, '60; D. P. Todd, '75; W. A. Parker, '84, and A. G. James, '89.

MEMORIAL DAY AT UNION.

Record of the College in Commerce, Industry, and the Professions.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 26.—This is Memorial Day, in the seven days' celebration of the centennial of Union College, and its observances began at 8:30 this morning, on the college campus. The glorious record of Union's sons in the war for the preservation of the Union was spoken of by Gen. Daniel Butterfield, class of '49, who presided, and who introduced Judge Austin A. Yates of Schenectady, or Major Yates, as his war record left him, of the class of '54. Judge Yates then delivered the flag-raising oration.

After these ceremonies, Memorial Hall was filled with alumni, students, and others, interested in the exercises in honor of the work and influence of Union College in commercial and industrial life. W. H. Moore of the class of '44 presided. The chief address was by Warner Miller, class of '60. Following this came considerations of Union College in the professions. The speakers were Major John Van R. Hoff, M. D., of the United States Army, class of '71; J. Lorenzo Piero, '67, and the Rev. Tennis Hamlin, '67.

The semi-centennial of the Engineering School was celebrated in the afternoon. President Gady Staley, '65, of the Case School of Applied Sciences, presided. Gen. Ray Stowe, '56, made an address. The alumni banquet was held in Memorial Hall this afternoon.

THE WESLEYAN COMMENCEMENT.

A Class of Fifty-three Members Graduated Yesterday.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., June 26.—The commencement exercises of Wesleyan University were held this morning in the Methodist Church, before an audience of about 2,000 persons. A large number of the alumni were present, among them being ex-Gov. Lounsbury and Gov. O. V. Coffin of this State; Judge George E. Reynolds of New-York, Dr. Samuel F. Upham of Drew Theological Seminary, Dr. W. V. Kelly, Dr. J. M. Buckley and Dr. White of Yale, and President A. W. Harris of the Maine State College.

The class of '95 numbers fifty-three members, of which eight are young ladies. Sixteen are from New-York, sixteen from Connecticut, eight from Maine, five from Massachusetts, four from Pennsylvania, two from Vermont, and one each from New-Jersey, Illinois, New-Hampshire, and Rhode Island.

Graduating Exercises at Williams.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., June 26.—The graduating exercises of the one hundred and first commencement of Williams College were held this forenoon in the college church. The degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon seventy-two graduates and that of Master of Arts upon two. This afternoon the alumni dinner to Trustees, graduates, and invited guests was given in the Lasell Gymnasium. The President's reception and Marshal's supper this evening closed the Commencement events.

University of Vermont.

BURLINGTON, Vt., June 26.—The graduating exercises of the ninety-first commencement of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College were held to-day. The graduating class numbered thirty-eight.

Gov. Matthews Nursing His Boomlet.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 26.—Gov. Matthews and family have gone to New-York, Boston, and Washington, and it is given out by his political friends that he will hold interviews with the Eastern wing of the Democracy regarding the possibility of a Western man for the next Democratic Presidential nomination. It is known that Gov. Matthews has some admirers in the East who have admitted he is a Presidential possibility.

MONEY FOR CLEAN STREETS

Board of Estimate and Apportionment Shows a Way to Get It.

DEPENDS ON THE BOARD OF HEALTH

If the Public Good Demands It Bonds Can Be Issued to Cover Any Deficiency—Col. Waring Praised.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment met yesterday in the Mayor's office, and the special committee which had been appointed to investigate the affairs of the Street Cleaning Department made its report. This report was the result of several communications submitted to the board some weeks ago by Col. Waring.

The sub-committee was made up of the following members: Controller Fitch, President Jeroloman of the Board of Aldermen, President Barker of the Tax Department, and Corporation Counsel Francis M. Scott. The report follows:

There was appropriated for the Department of Street Cleaning for the year 1895 the sum of $2,396,000. Transfers were made by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment from the appropriation for sweeping to the appropriation for removal of snow and ice of various sums aggregating $198,000, necessitating a rearrangement of the aforesaid appropriations.

When your committee first investigated the accounts of the Department of Street Cleaning, the result of said investigation, based on the expenditures up to May 18, 1895, foretold an estimated deficiency for the year of $810,993.68, from which, however, could be deducted the sum of $198,000 expended for the removal of snow and ice, for which bonds can be issued, and $11,565.94, which it is expected will be derived from certain sales, leaving to be provided by this committee the sum of $601,427.77. Of the aforesaid items of appropriation, excluding the "snow and ice" and "new stock" accounts, there was remaining on May 31, 1895, according to the estimate of the Commissioner of Street Cleaning, after payment of all indebtedness, $956,220.20.

The average monthly expenditures of the department up to and including May 31, as estimated by the Commissioner of Street Cleaning, for the above purposes and excluding snow and ice and purchases of new stock, amounted to $238,155.95.

It has been estimated by the Commissioner that the expenditures for the month of June will be $238,100, and for the month of July $238,400. If the expenditures for the month of June shall equal said estimate, there will be remaining of the appropriation, July 1, 1895, the sum of $718,120.20, or an average of $119,686.70 for each of the six months of the present year which are yet to come. To these available funds, however, there may be added the sum of $198,000, being the amount of the transfers to the snow and ice account, and which the Board of Estimate and Apportionment is by law empowered to raise by the issue of revenue bonds. If this amount be added to the funds now credited to the Department of Street Cleaning, there will be an estimated available monthly balance for the last six months of the year of $152,686.70.

In the opinion of the Commissioner of Street Cleaning, it will not be possible to keep the streets of the city in their present condition, and to remove and dispose of the ashes, garbage, street sweepings, and other refuse as promptly as is now being done for a less sum per month than the average expenditures of this department for the first six months of the current year.

In the opinion of your committee, there is no method provided by law whereby additional funds for the ordinary uses of the Department of Street Cleaning, exclusive of the expenses of new plant and of removing snow and ice, can be provided, unless it shall appear to the Board of Health of said city that it is necessary for the preservation of the health of the city that the work of cleaning the streets and parks of Street Cleaning shall be performed more completely and efficiently than can be done by expenditure of the amount of money remaining in the appropriation for said department for the current year.

If, in the opinion of the Board of Health, the preservation of the health of the community requires that greater efficiency shall be maintained in the cleaning of the streets and the removal of the ashes and garbage than can be obtained by the average monthly expenditure of $812,686.70, your committee is advised by the Counsel to the Corporation that the said Board of Health can lawfully, pursuant to the authority vested in it by Chapter 535 of the Laws of 1893, certify to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, and, upon the receipt of such certificate and its approval thereof by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, whatever money may be necessary to be by said last board lawfully authorized to be raised by the issue of revenue bonds in anticipation of the tax to be levied in the year 1896.

It is the opinion of your committee that the Commissioner of Street Cleaning should be advised by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to so limit the expenditure of the balance of his appropriation still remaining unexpended as not to expend in any one month of the present year, subsequent to July 1, 1895, a greater sum than one-sixth of the balance of the appropriation for his department for said year which shall remain on July 1, and that if the Board of Health shall be of the opinion that the preservation of the health of the community requires that a larger sum per month, or during any month, or months, should be expended, that said board shall so certify to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, who may then, as we are advised by the Counsel to the Corporation, appropriate whatever money may be necessary to efficiently and properly clean and keep clean the streets of the city. The adoption of this course will require, from time to time, a certificate from the Board of Health to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, and will also require that the expenses incurred in each month, pursuant to such certificate, shall be certified and approved to the Controller by said Board of Health.

The committee therefore recommend that a copy of this report, and of whatever action may be taken by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment in regard thereto, shall be transmitted to the Commissioner of Street Cleaning and to the President of the Board of Health.

Controller Fitch put himself on record as not intending to take a position that would result in any way to the detriment of the public health, but he entered the following protest as to the precedent established by the report:

The excuse given in this particular case for the state of facts which exists is the insufficiency of the appropriation. But if each head of a department is to be the judge of the sufficiency of the appropriation made for his particular department, and is to be free after spending the money set apart for his use to demand more, then the law should be changed and the Board of Estimate and Apportionment abolished. In such case no particular ability will be required to get great and beneficial results in any department. If not limited by their appropriation, the Board of Education can build this year the twenty-five schoolhouses and buy at once the fifty playgrounds which the children ask and which we know they ought to have. If their credit with the Finance Department is unlimited, the Commissioner of Public Works can put asphalt on every street, the Board of Health can give free medical attendance to every family, and the Dock Board can make our docks at once the finest in the world. There is no improvement (except a moderate tax rate) which we need or wish for which cannot be had at once under the new and simple method adopted in this case.

While I desire to record my protest against the procedure which has made this application to the board necessary, I am still ready to vote to protect the city in any legal way which can be devised against the calamities which might follow from it. If a defalcation or a bank failure had deprived the city of the cash intended to meet the interest on its bonds or to pay its workmen, I would vote for the money to make good the loss without approving the misappropriation. If mistaken or improper engineering should result in depriving part of the city of its water supply, I would instantly vote the money to make good the mistake without indorsing the course which led to it.

In this case it is most important for the health and comfort of our people that the work of cleaning the streets should not break down for want of money, and I shall join willingly in any legal arrangement to have it continue through the balance of the year.

Corporation Counsel Scott said: "In view of the Controller's statement, I want to say that, during all the time this committee has been sitting, there has been no suggestion of misappropriation of funds or even of undue extravagance on the part of the Street Cleaning Commissioner."

Controller Fitch promptly disclaimed any such suggestion.

Col. Waring said: "May 11 I stated to this board the financial condition of my department. It had then enough money left to keep the streets as clean as they were kept during 1894. I believed that it was worth while to show that the streets could be kept cleaner than they had been, but I had enough in reserve to keep them as clean as they were kept in 1894."

President Jeroloman of the Board of Aldermen said that the committee had found no willful waste, and for whatever money had been expended the public had received full value.

President Barker of the Tax Department said: "Col. Waring has got the streets clean and kept them clean. The public likes the change and wants the streets kept that way."

Corporation Counsel Scott said that Col. Waring was the first man who had cleaned the streets and kept them clean.

After thanking the sub-committee of the board, Mayor Strong said:

"I hope that we will continue to have clean streets, and that Col. Waring will be able to clean them with less money than he estimates. I believe that he can do it on less money."

The report was adopted. The action of the board will be communicated to the Board of Health, and, under the Emergency act, this board will certify that the additional amounts needed by the Street Cleaning Commissioner are necessary.

Col. Waring Sells Carts and Wagons.

Sixty-eight dilapidated, ancient, and badly worn-out wagons, trucks, and pushcarts left in the streets and seized by the Street Cleaning Department were sold at auction yesterday afternoon in the yards of the Street Cleaning Department, at Thirty-eighth Street and First Avenue. The sale attracted a couple of hundred boys and men.

The trucks were in every condition, the prices ranging from $3 to $20.50. One or two well-known second-hand dealers were large buyers. After about twenty-five wagons of various descriptions had been disposed of, the pushcarts were put up. At that a score of long and thickly bearded men, common figures in Essex and Hester Streets, pushed forward and began to bid, while the buyers of trucks stood back and let them fight it out among themselves. The major portion of the carts were started at a quarter, and bid up in jumps of 5 and 10 cents at a time, the carts bringing from $8 to as low as 10 cents.

NOT ROUIS, BUT GEORGE KUNLEY

Identity of the Man Who Killed Himself in the Alpine Apartments Disclosed by Rophine Rouis.

The man who killed himself at his room in the Alpine Apartment House, Broadway and Thirty-third Street, Tuesday evening was George Kunley, not George W. Rouis, the supposed cousin of Rophine Rouis. Kunley had assumed Rouis's name by consent of the latter. Rouis gave himself up yesterday as a witness and was paroled with his counsel, Lawyer Howe of Howe & Hummel, until Monday.

Kunley drew a revolver preparatory to shooting himself while Rouis was in his room Tuesday night. Rouis became frightened and ran down stairs, where he heard the shot which ended Kunley's life, but did not wait to learn its consequences. Rouis walked the streets almost all night. He first called at the office of his physician, Dr. Niehaus, on Ninety-fifth Street, and afterward at the residence of Lawyer Howe, to whom he told his story.

Rouis met Kunley about five years ago in a Tenth Street boarding house. They became very good friends, and afterward started business on Broadway as artistic decorators.

Kunley had considerable business ability, and Rouis intrusted to him all the business transactions. The reason why Kunley changed his name was explained by Rophine Rouis, who said yesterday that Kunley told him he had once served a term in prison at Trenton, N. J., and he thought the business chances would be better if he passed himself off as Rouis's cousin and assumed his name.

The firm failed in March, 1894, but started up again at 329 Fifth Avenue. Rouis relied so implicitly in Kunley that, according to his story, the latter had squandered about $150,000 of the firm's money before he discovered it. The final crash came about three weeks ago, when the partnership was dissolved and Rouis forced out of business.

Rouis called on Kunley at his apartments, in the Alpine, Tuesday night and chided him for his mismanagement of the business. Kunley was in bed at the time. He jumped out of bed and said he would shoot himself. He flourished a revolver. Rouis became greatly alarmed and started from the apartments.

As he did so Kunley fired one shot, and by the time Rouis had reached the next floor below had fired another. Rouis was so frightened that he did not go back to see the result of the shooting.

At the Coroner's inquest Lawyer Howe said that it could be proved by George J. Kilgen, who saw Kunley shoot himself, that it was a case of suicide. Mr. Kilgen went to the State camp at Peekskill yesterday morning.

George F. Mallon, a newspaper reporter, testified that Mr. Kilgen had told him that he saw Kunley shoot himself. The letters which Kunley left were not made public, but the Coroner and lawyers said that they indicated a purpose to commit suicide. The hearing was postponed until Monday.

REFUSED TO CARE FOR A STARVING WOMAN

Agents of Two Societies Blamed for Their Indifference.

Mrs. Sarah Hutchinson was turned out of her home, at Richfield Park, N. J., by her husband, Monday, and tramped to this city, with her baby boy. She staggered into the station house at Jefferson Market Monday evening. She told her story to the agents of the Gerry Society, and of the Charities and Organizations Societies. She had had nothing to eat for two days.

Agents Gerome and Moore each said, it was reported: "Our society does not handle such cases." The police did not tell Justice Simms, in the Jefferson Market Court, yesterday, the facts, and he sent the woman over the ferry to New-Jersey in charge of a policeman. He afterward sent to have her brought back and cared for, but it was too late.

The fact that the child was allowed to stay in the station house all night is a violation of the law. The police blame the two agents for not taking care of the woman.

EAST RIVER BRIDGE COMMISSION

Meeting of the Board for Organization —The Officers Chosen.

The New East River Bridge Commission met in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon and organized. Mayor Strong moved that Mayor Schieren of Brooklyn act as Chairman.

The following officers were chosen: A. D. Baird, President; S. H. Wales, Vice President; F. B. Thurber, Secretary; Richard Deeves, Treasurer. John C. Bouton, an accountant, was appointed Assistant Secretary.

The commission will occupy temporary offices in the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Building, corner of Duane Street and Broadway.

The following Commissioners were appointed to serve on committees:

Commissioners Baird, Deeves, Sperry, and Batterman on the Executive Committee. Commissioners Deeves, Wales, Thurber, and Sperry on the Finance Committee. The commission adjourned until July 8.

SPERLING WAS A WIFE MURDERER

His Body Buried in the Potter's Field Among the "Unknown."

The body of a wife murderer passed unidentified through the Morgue on April 18 and was buried in Potter's Field. This fact was discovered yesterday by Detective Nelson of the Hoboken police force. The murderer was Christopher Sperling, a silk weaver, forty-two years old, who lived at 210 Hudson Street, Hoboken, N. J. He murdered his wife on Feb. 18 last.

Circulars containing his description and notice that he was wanted for murder were sent to all the cities. One was received at the Morgue. When Sperling was found drowned at the foot of East Eighteenth Street on April 18 last, however, his body was not recognized by the description and he was buried as an "unknown."

Detective Nelson called at the Morgue yesterday and looked over the pictures kept on file. He recognized the picture of Sperling. It is thought that the murderer committed suicide soon after the murder.

For Its Half-Holiday Patrons.

For the accommodation of the Saturday half-holiday travel, the New-York Central will hereafter run on every Saturday during the season a special fast train over the Harlem Division, leaving the Grand Central Station at 1:15 P. M., stopping only at One Hundred and Thirty-eighth Street, Mount Vernon, White Plains, Kensico, Unionville, Sherman Park, Pleasantville, Chappaqua, Mount Kisco, Bedford, Katonah, and Golden's Bridge. This will relieve the pressure on the regular trains, and provide a fast service that will be appreciated by residents on the Harlem line.

SWINDLED BY PAY ROLLS

How Kings County Was Robbed Under the Cloak of Charity.

MECHANICS PAID FOR PATIENTS' WORK

Commissioner Henry Tells of Mismanagement—Warden Hayes Testifies as to the Penitentiary Evils.

Hugo Hirsch, counsel to the Assembly Committee on Cities, which is investigating the Brooklyn Department of Charities and Correction, yesterday continued his inquiries into the methods pursued in conducting the institution at St. Johnland, and also set out to obtain some information concerning the management of the Kings County Penitentiary. Commissioner Henry was again a witness.

He said he understood that Chief Engineer McCanna and Officer John M. Gray own a saloon at Nevins and Bergen Streets, which is conducted by Gray's son.

He also gave it as his opinion that the Charities Department was not properly and economically conducted by his predecessors.

"You found 'dummies' on the pay roll?" asked Mr. Hirsch.

"I did, and they were discharged."

Commissioner Henry then asserted that though the department had 400 more persons to take care of, its expenses were $100,000 a year less than they were under the old régime.

Dr. Macumber, formerly physician at the Flatbush and St. Johnland asylums, said he shared authority with Superintendent of Transportation James Kirby. He considered Kirby insane, as he was addicted to the cocaine habit, and finally was confined in an insane asylum. As bodies could not be removed from a cottage without Kirby's sanction, corpses often remained several days in a house with living persons because Kirby was not prepared to act. The provisions and diet of the patients, Dr. Macumber declared, were very poor. Some of the meat was so bad that it had to be buried as soon as received. Patients did most of the work around the grounds that laborers and mechanics were paid to do.

Mechanics, he said, were employed sometimes under Chief Engineer Buchanan's son, and sometimes they did not appear to be under anybody. They came and went as they pleased.

Dr. Macumber said horses were often brought to St. Johnland from Commissioner Gott to be fattened. He could not remember whether Commissioner Gott's horses and carriages were kept at St. Johnland. Kirby sometimes kept horses there at the county's expense. Useless fire engines were sent to St. Johnland once, when fire apparatus was asked for.

The doctor said he made many complaints about the quality of the supplies furnished to the department to President Gott, and the President did not like it. He said he was forced from the department because he would not carry out orders that it was impossible to comply with. He had Drs. Wing and Gray on his staff. The entire force of physicians and nurses was demoralized on account of the attitude of the Commissioners.

Warden Patrick Hayes of the Kings County Penitentiary was the next witness. He said he had been Warden six years. He was previously a clerk in the Grey Auditing Department. Before that he was a longshoreman.

Q.—Who are the contractors for the various things manufactured in the prison? A.—The Williams-Martin Chair Company; the Imperial Manufacturing Company, ladies' waists; Peter McNulty, United States mail bags, and the United States Curled Hair Company, manufacturers of curled hair.

Q.—Are you interested in any of these contracts? A.—No, Sir.

Warden Hayes described the dark cells. "The only air," he said, "comes in through interstices of one door. The other door is of sheet iron. The man is kept there until he consents to behave himself."

Q.—What is the longest time a man has been kept in that dark cell continuously? A.—Don't know. The doctor keeps the records.

Q.—Do you know of a man being confined there twenty-nine days? A.—No, Sir.

Q.—You never slept a night in the dark cell? A.—Oh, no, Sir.

Q.—Do you know the effect of imprisonment in the dark cell upon the prisoners? A.—No, Sir, but I have heard some tell.

Q.—Where do you get the law that permits confinement in the dark cell? A.—I don't know.

The Warden told of having deprived prisoners of food.

Q.—Where do you get the law to deprive a man of his food? A.—From the law governing commutation of sentences.

Q.—Are any convicts deprived of food from Saturday night to Monday morning? A.—Yes, Sir.

Q.—Who are convicts deprived of food on Sunday? A.—Because they don't do the work allotted them.

Q.—Are visitors permitted to bring cigars and delicacies to prisoners? A.—Yes.

Q.—Do you remember a visitor who passed cigars through a door to a prisoner and you threw him out of the prison? A.—I may have done that.

Warden Hayes said notice of complaints was transmitted to him through the keepers, but if the keepers chose not to notify him, then the convict might approach him in the shop or any other place where they met.

Q.—Have you suspended keepers for assaulting convicts? A.—Yes.

Warden Hayes immediately corrected himself and said he could not be positive on that point.

Returning to the incident of the visitor being thrown out because he gave cigars to a prisoner, Mr. Hirsch asked the Warden if the prisoner was put in the dark cell.

"He may have been."

Q.—Why? A.—Because he received the cigars against the rules.

Q.—You ever allow prisoners to buy tobacco from the keeper? A.—I can't answer that question. I don't know that it has occurred.

Q.—But it might occur? A.—Yes.

Q.—Are the prison rules printed? A.—No.

Q.—Who has them? A.—The keepers explain them.

Q.—Isn't the punishment of the dark cell so severe that convicts have committed suicide in them? A.—No, Sir.

Q.—Have not convicts committed suicide in the dark cell? A.—Yes. A prisoner killed himself last month. I don't know what his name was. He had been in the dark cell six or seven hours. It was in the night.

Adjournment was then announced until 10 o'clock this morning.

Chief Engineer McCanna yesterday notified the Commissioners of Charities and Correction that he had suspended Assistant Chief Engineer John Miller at St. Johnland for disobedience of orders and conduct tending to demoralize the force, and Fireman G. F. Lundgren for ill-treating an insane patient.

The Vacheron Case Postponed.

ALBANY, June 26.—The Assemblyman Vacheron bribery case was to-day put over the term by Judge Clute, in the Court of Sessions, and sent to the next Criminal Court. District Attorney Burlingame asked the Governor to appoint a special Oyer and Terminer for August to try the three murderers now confined in the Albany County Jail. If it is ordered, the District Attorney says, the Vacheron case will come to trial then. Otherwise, it cannot come up until the September term.

Later in the day Andrew Hamilton, of counsel for Mr. Vacheron, moved that the case go over until the September term of the Court of Sessions, so as to preclude it coming up at any special Oyer and Terminer which might be called by the Governor to consider capital cases. He said that it was an outrage that the case should be classed with and tried at the same time as those of murderers. The Judge granted the motion.

To Do an Importing Business.

The certificate of incorporation of the Waldorf Importation Company was filed yesterday in the office of the County Clerk. The capital stock of the company is $50,000. The company is organized to import, buy, and sell wines and liquors, groceries, fancy notions, and other articles, and to act as agent for foreign houses.

The Trustees of the company are George C. Boldt, the Manager of the Waldorf Hotel; Thomas M. Hilliard, who lives at the Waldorf, and William J. Fanning, who refused to accept the position of Police Magistrate from Mayor Strong, and who lives at the Hotel Empire.

END OF THE BLAUT CASE

Indictments Against the Madison Square Officers Dismissed, as there Was Not Enough Evidence to Convict.

The criminal end of the Madison Square Bank failure was definitely wound up yesterday. Justice Barrett, sitting in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, dismissed the indictments against Joseph F. Blaut, Andrew L. Soulard, and Ronald T. McDonald, charging them with complicity in the wrecking of the bank two years ago. The motion for the dismissal of the indictments was made by Assistant District Attorney Vernon M. Davis, and indorsed by District Attorney Fellows.

Blaut was President of the Bank, and the others were Directors. They were indicted Nov. 27, 1893, together with Cashier Lewis Thompson, and Directors Frederick Ullman, A. S. Kalischer, Simon Ottenberg, and Charles E. Selover.

Blaut was tried, and, after the jury had disagreed, the indictment against him for perjury was quashed. Other indictments were then drawn charging Blaut, McDonald, and Soulard with receiving deposits when they knew the bank was insolvent. These are the indictments which have now been dismissed.

The indictments against Selover, Kalischer, Ullman, and Ottenberg were quashed immediately after the Blaut trial. Thompson, the cashier, turned informer, and the indictment against him was never pressed.

Mr. Davis, when asked why he had moved for the dismissal of the indictments, replied:

"Because there was not sufficient evidence to warrant a convi

THE FINANCIAL MARKETS

Little Doing in Stocks Outside of Professional Operations.

MANY SPECIALTIES SHOW STRENGTH

Missouri, Kansas and Texas and Wheeling and Lake Erie Issues Score Sharp Advances—Sugar Working Lower.

WEDNESDAY—P. M.

Speculation to-day was largely professional, and fluctuations meant little more than the momentary temper of the traders. The volume of trading was small, only 201,033 shares changing hands. The market was irregular, although several specialties made gains. Only about 8,000 shares were done in the leading Grangers, and at the close they were from ¼ to ⅝ lower than yesterday. In the coal group Reading displayed some strength, the buying being based on the showing made in the return of May earnings. The net results, however, were obtained by the increase of great economies, the percentage of operating expenses to gross receipts being unusually low. The coal sales agents are to meet to-morrow, but if they are to take any decisive action looking to the betterment of the trade the secret has been well kept.

London did very little in the market, although it probably sold more than it bought. Louisville and Nashville was heavy on small transactions, and at the close had lost nearly a point. Kansas and Texas and Wheeling and Lake Erie issues were strong. The common stock of the former gained 1⅛ points, and the preferred ½. Wheeling common advanced 1 and the preferred 1¾ points. The strength of the stocks of these roads is not surprising in view of their earnings. The Wheeling company is getting the benefit not only of larger traffic but materially better rates, so that the outlook for the year is very encouraging. Kansas and Texas earnings continue to improve. Since Jan. 1 they have increased nearly a million dollars, compared with the corresponding period last year. Uncertainty regarding the position of the minority stock of the New-England company in the pending deal with the New-Haven led to a loss of 1¼ points. Susquehanna and Western preferred was marked up 2 points, to 29½, on transactions of about 5,000 shares. The movement was the result of manipulation; it caused remark because of the well-known weakness of the company's financial position. Texas and Pacific and Wabash preferred were well held and scored fractional gains.

Sugar and Chicago Gas led the industrial group in activity. The first named sold down to 113⅝, but closed at 114¼, a net loss of 1¼ points. Chicago Gas was inclined to heaviness, but it closed practically unchanged. Distillers' was under manipulation by brokers representing ex-President Greenhut, with the object of covering the outstanding short interest of that gentleman. The stock was strong at the opening, but went back to 21 at the close, a net loss of ⅝. Tennessee Coal and Iron was traded in to a very limited extent, in view of the fact that a few days ago it was the leader of the market in point of activity. It closed ⅛ down. Illinois Steel was erratic in its movements, and at the end was down 1⅞ points. Tobacco moved up to 115, but closed at 113½, a net gain of ½. General Electric lost ⅛ to 37.

THE MONEY MARKET.

The money market was quiet. Call loans were made at 1@1¼ per cent. The last loan was made at 1 per cent.

Time money was in fair demand, but the supply was very liberal. Rates were 1@1½ per cent. for thirty to sixty days, 2 per cent. for ninety days to four months, and 2½@2¾ per cent. for five to seven months.

Commercial paper was quiet with a little business doing. Rates were 2½@2¾ per cent. for sixty and ninety days' indorsements, 2¾@3 per cent. for four months' commission house acceptances and choice single names, and 3@3½ per cent. for six months' single names.

The Clearing House exchanges were $99,657,625, and the balances were $6,283,205. The Sub-Treasury debit balance was $81,213.

Money in London, ½@1 per cent.; short and three months' bills, 9-16 per cent.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC EXCHANGE

The foreign exchange market was dull and firm. Nominal rates were $4.89 for sixty days and $4.90 for demand. Actual sales were at $4.88⅝ for sixty-day bills, $4.89¼ for demand, $4.89⅝@$4.90 for cable transfers, and $4.88 for commercial.

In Continental, francs were quoted at 5.15⅝ for long and 5.14⅜ for short, reichsmarks at 95⅜ and 96, and guilders at 40⅝ and 40⅝.

New-York exchange was quoted as follows: Chicago—70c premium. Boston—15c discount. San Francisco—Sight, par; telegraphic, 5c per $100 premium. Charleston—Buying, par; selling, ⅜c premium. New-Orleans—Commercial, 50c premium; bank, $1.50 premium. Savannah—Buying, par; selling, ⅜ per cent. premium up to $5,000; 1-10 per cent. premium for $5,000 and over.

BULLION STATISTICS.

Silver bullion certificates were quoted at 66¼@66¾. There were sales of 10,000 ounces at 66¼.

The commercial price of bar silver was 66⅝c per ounce. Mexican dollars were quoted at 53c.

In London bar silver sold at 30 3-16d per ounce.

CAPITAL STOCK

OF THE

Providence Building Company

OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Organized under the Laws of the State of Rhode Island, consisting of 16,000 shares of the par value of $100.00 each, of which 15,000 shares are offered.

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS WILL BE OPENED JUNE 28 AND CLOSED ON OR BEFORE JULY 3.

Payments of subscriptions to be made as follows:

Five per cent. on application.
Thirty-five per cent. on allotment.
The remainder as called for by the Treasurer, but not over 10 per cent. in any one month.

THE RIGHT IS RESERVED TO REDUCE THE AMOUNT OF OR REJECT ANY SUBSCRIPTION. NEGOTIABLE CERTIFICATES WILL BE ISSUED ON ALLOTMENTS. ARRANGEMENTS MAY BE MADE LATER FOR ALLOWANCES OF INTEREST ON PREPAYMENTS OF SUBSCRIPTIONS IN FULL.

This company has bought the property known as the Grosvenor Estate, fronting on Weybosset Street, and next to the Post Office in Providence, and it is believed to be the best location in the city for office purposes. The Company will erect thereon a bank and office building which it is estimated will cost, including lands, taxes during construction, architect's fees, and carrying charges, about $1,500,000.

The by-laws of the company provide that no bonds can be issued unless sanctioned by the owners of three-fourths of the stock.

There is an actual scarcity of good offices in Providence, which is shown by the fact that before the plans were ready to be exhibited applications were made by enough tenants to fill four floors of the new building.

The contract calls for a building ten stories high, to be made of steel, with a stone and brick facing, strictly fire-proof, and superior to any building now in existence in Providence.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE ESTIMATED YEARLY INCOME, AND IS THOUGHT TO BE CONSERVATIVE:

BASEMENT AND PRIVILEGES	$10,000
GROUND FLOOR	35,000
FIRST FLOOR	17,500
EIGHT UPPER FLOORS	103,200
	$165,700
DEDUCT 10 PER CENT. FOR VACANCIES	16,570
	$149,130
ESTIMATED ANNUAL EXPENSES.
TAXES	$14,000
EXPENSES	26,000
	$40,000
LEAVING A SURPLUS APPLICABLE TO DIVIDENDS	$109,130

FRUITS—FRESH—Only a few peaches arrive from the South, and these are of ordinary quality, for which demand is light at former quotations; better goods are inquired for. Plums dull. Cherries selling better and a shade firmer. Currants more plenty and weaker. Strawberries dull; quality generally poor. Raspberries about steady. Prime blackberries scarce and firm; lots dull and weak. Blackberries easier. Watermelons more active and firm. Muskmelons largely inferior and demand for choice only. We quote: Apples, Georgia, per carrier, $1@$2; do, North Carolina, green, per bbl, $1@$2; peaches, per carrier, $1@$2.50; plums, $1.50@$2.50; do, per 4-full case, 75c@$1; cherries, per lb, 2@7c; currants, large, per quart, 4@6c; do, small, 6@7c; strawberries, per quart, 5@10c; blackberries, large, per quart, 13@14c; do, medium, 10@12c; do, small, 6@10c; raspberries, red, up-river, per 3-to-quart cup, 6@7c; do, per 4-to-quart cup, 4@5c; do, Jersey and Maryland, per pint, 7@9c; blackcaps, per pint, 3@6c; gooseberries, per quart, 4@5c; do, large varieties, 6@7c; watermelons, per 100, $12@$25; muskmelons, per bbl, $1@$3; do, per basket, 50c@$1.50.

FRUITS—DRIED—Buyers are a little slow to follow the advance in evaporated apples, but stocks here are very moderate, and there is a firm holding of all grades. Sun-dried steady but slow. Small fruits unchanged and dull. Apricots firm and having fair call. Prunes are pushed to sale at easy prices. We quote: Apples, evaporated, fancy, 7@7¼c; do, prime to choice, 6½@7c; do, common to good, 5@6c; do, sun-dried, 5@5½c; cores and skins, 1½@1c; raspberries, evaporated, 18c; cherries, 11c; blackberries, 3½@4c; plums, State, 3½@4c; apricots, 6@9c; peaches, California, peeled, 12@14c; do, unpeeled, 5@8½c; prunes, as to size and quality, 3½@8c.

Quotations are for wholesale lots. The outside figures are the quotations posted by the refining companies, and the inside rates show actual cost, after deducting rebates and allowances. New-York and Philadelphia refiners also allow 1 per cent. trade discount on lots of 100 bbls or more, and on less quantities one-half of 1 per cent. They will not sell less than 25 bbls. For sugar packed in bags there is an additional charge on granulated, (Nos. 18 and 14,) but not on 16 per lb on all other grades.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Wheat traders talked over old gossip to-day because there was nothing new to be heard. The reports of disappointing thrashing in California and the Southwest and the low condition of crops in Michigan were rehashed, but the net gain made in the price did not indicate that the subjects materially helped the market. The opening was about steady with scarcely anything doing. It was discovered during the first five or ten minutes that offerings were not oppressively large, and a few buying orders served to push values up a cent. Then there was a gradual retrogression until the gain was almost entirely lost, but just before the close reports of sales of fifteen loads at New-York for August and talk of the taking of a small line of cash wheat at this place again imparted strength with a final recovery the result. Liverpool cables were quiet and steady. Closing ones from the Continent were lower for Paris and higher for Berlin. Antwerp was not heard from. Receipts to-day were light at 23 cars for Chicago and 195 in the Northwest. Withdrawals from store were 29,400 bushels and 185,871 bushels cleared at the seaboard.

WHEAT—July opened from 71½@71⅝c, sold to 72½@72⅝c, and closed at 72¼c, ⅝@⅜c higher than yesterday. Cash wheat in the sample department ruled firm and 1c per bushel higher.

CORN was steady and firm, with wheat, during the first half hour and turned lower with it also, but when the rally of the finer grain took place there was not enough strength in corn to bring about a recovery. The session was dry and spiritless, without any attractive feature to the trade. Receipts, 133 cars—27 more than expected—and 264,325 bushels were taken from store. Export clearances amounted to 131,047 bushels. Liverpool cables were quiet and firm. July corn opened at 48¾c, sold between 48⅝c and 47¾c, closing at 48@48⅛c, ⅛@⅜c lower than yesterday. Cash corn was weak and ½c per bushel lower. Receipts at principal Western points were 425,076 bushels; shipments, 355,569 bushels. Receipts at Eastern points, 208,669 bushels.

OATS—There was not a great deal to say about wheat or corn and still less about oats to-day. Like the rest, however, the predominant tone was a weak one and the close was comparatively easy. The selling represented the holdings of "longs" who have finally yielded to the conviction that there is no merit in present prices for this grain. Receipts were 158 cars and 61,691 bushels were taken from store. July oats closed ⅛c under yesterday. Cash oats were ¼c per bushel lower.

RYE was steadier. There was some demand, but prices did not change materially. Arrivals were light and offerings small. Receipts were 3 cars. No. 2 was 60c bid. No. 2, by sample, sold at 61½c and No. 3 at 55c. September sold at 63c.

BARLEY was slow and easy. Demand was tame. Common to fair quality sold from 47c to 50c; good to choice was nominally at a shade higher. September was nominally 53c.

PROVISIONS—The strength of product found its source in both grain and hogs to-day. There were good buying orders to be seen early, and when the demand ceased for a time values held very steady. Toward the wind-up of the session there was another rally which placed July pork 7½c higher, July lard 2½@5c higher, and July ribs 2½c higher than yesterday's final quotations, where they rested. Domestic and foreign markets were quiet and steady. Receipts were moderate and shipments free. The cash market was unchanged.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat, 30 cars; corn, 127 cars; oats, 193 cars; hogs, 25,000 head.

FREIGHTS were slow. The line boats were the only ones offered and agents get the little grain offered at Buffalo.
